Govt. May Double Contribution

Extra $5 For Aged?

OTTAWA, April 11—(CP)—Informed sources in Ottawa said last night they believed the old age pension legislation the government plans to bring down at the current session of Parliament will provide for a federal contribution of $10 to the various provincial pensions in place of the $5 Dominion bonus now being paid.

GOVERNMENT quarters have indicated that no old age pension legislation will be brought down until parliament deals with important control legislation, probably late in May.

It is known, however, that one of the control measures will continue the wartime order-in-council by which the Dominion contributed a $5 supplement to provincial pensions, bringing the figure to $30.

IT IS BELIEVED that the Old Age Pension Act to be introduced later will boost the federal contribution permanently to $10 and possibly widen the scope of those eligible for such pensions. The wartime order-in-council providing the $5 Dominion contribution could be rescinded when the Act was endorsed by Parliament.

WINNIPEG, April 11—(CP)—Health Minister Paul Martin confirmed here last night that old age pension legislation will be brought down during the present session of Parliament, but he refused to disclose what the government's policy would be. "The matter will be disclosed in Commons," Mr. Martin said, "but until such time I cannot give any details."

He revealed, however, that the "Dominion proposed to prepare the way for a system of national old age pensions, payable at 70 years, with no means test and financed by the federal government. "A further program is proposed of old age assistance at 65 to 69 years, to be financed by the province and Dominion."

12,000 Guerillas Face Encirclement Trap

Greek Rebels May Give Up

ATHENS, APRIL 11-(AP)—Unofficial sources estimated today that between 10,000 and 12,000 guerillas were in the Pindus-mountain area between Thessaly and Epirus now being surrounded by government troops in an offensive begun Wednesday.

EARLIER REPORTS had put the number of guerillas in the region at about 3,000.

Authorities reported today they had intercepted a guerilla wireless message demanding urgent help and forecasting surrender if it were not forthcoming.

The Conservative Athens newspaper Embros, in a dispatch from Trikkala in North-Central Greece, reported that the army's operations had exceeded the most optimistic expectations and that rocket - firing aircraft were wreaking havoc in guerilla ranks.

THE HEAD of a British air mission was reported to have arrived yesterday at Volos on a gulf of the Agean Sea east of the com-

Powered by two Rolls Royce Derwent turbo-jets, the craft has a wing span of about 90 feet. It accommodates two persons and, except for the wing-tip rudders, wind-screen assembly and a slight bulge underneath, is of all-wing design, thus reducing drag and structural weight. The gaping mouths at each side of the cockpit are the air-in-takes.

Molotov Refuses Give France Saar

By R. H. Shackford

MOSCOW, April 11 —(BUP)— Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov today rejected an insistent French demand that the Council of Foreign Ministers immediately separate the Saar from Germany and place it under a French economic and financial system.

At the same council meeting Molotov revealed that at the Tehran Conference the late President Roosevelt had suggested dividing Germany into five different states, and that it was not until Potsdam that the Big Three completely abandoned the idea of dismembering Germany and agreed upon unification.

Time and again throughout today's meeting French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault—having obtained support of Secretary of State George C. Marshall and British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin for his Saar plan—pressed Molotov for an immediate decision.

MOLOTOV KEPT insisting that the Soviets would have to study the proposal and was equally insistent that the other powers discuss the Soviet proposal for a special four-power regime to control the Ruhr before deciding on the Saar.

Bidault had proposed creation of a Big Four commission to work out details at once of a plan for separating the Saar from Germany and creating a politically autonomous state.

"France wants the issue settled at once," Bidault said.

"What reply is there on the Soviet proposal for the Ruhr?" Molotov asked.

BIDAULT SAID the council meeting today was the place for discussion of the Ruhr. "But we want a decision on the Saar."

"The Soviet delegation will have to study the Saar issue," Molotov replied.

The ministers went through a similar routine again before Bidault finally admitted "It is now clear we will not be able to get an immediate answer from Mr. Molotov."

Molotov opened today's meeting with a statement on Germany's western frontiers. It included another attack on the merger of the British and American zones as "unilateral action" which was aimed at dismemberment of Germany.

HE REJECTED Marshall's proposal for treating the Ruhr as an European problem with international supervision of its resources, saying it could only remain on paper until a "split" of Germany caused by the Anglo-

Aid Program Planned

U.S. Ready to Act For Independent Korea

By R. H. Shackford

MOSCOW, April 11 —(BUP)— US Secretary of State George Marshall is prepared to initiate an economic aid program for southern Korea to make it economically independent of the Soviet zone if the Russians persist in their refusal to take joint action, it was learned today.

Marshall's attitude was revealed after he sent a note to Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov warning the Soviets of unilateral U.S. action in Korea if they refuse to reconvene the joint commission charged with starting Korea on the road to independence.

Alternative plans were understood to be something of a combination of the U.S. proposal to aid Greece and Turkey, plus the principle which prompted the United States and Great Britain to merge their zones in Germany when the Russians blocked economic unity.

Southern Korea depends on the Soviet-occupied zone in the north for coal and electricity. The Unit-

600 Injured

Toll in Tornado Now 146 Dead

By CARTER BRADLEY

WOODWARD, Okla., April 11—(BUP)—The army flew filtering equipment into this tornado-stricken city today to avert a water famine.

OKLAHOMA and Texas officials counted 146 dead and more than 600 injured from the storm which cut across this two-state area Wednesday night.

Mass funerals for the dead were planned for the next few days.

Partial electric service was restored during the night and 20 long distance telephone lines were installed to solve the communications blackout. Emergency filtration equipment, flown here by the fourth army, was expected to place the municipal water system back in operation before night.

TEAMS OF RED Cross and Salvation Army workers began a systematic check of morgues and hospitals in the two-state area in quest of accurate lists of casualties.

Colorful War Veteran Known to Thousands

Stonewall Jackson Dies Suddenly

Death, who sooner or later calls on all men, paid his visit to "Stonewall Jackson" at an undetermined time recently. In keeping with the nature of his life, the end for Stonewall came in his lonely single room lodging in the Kenmoe Lodge, 9960 Jasper avenue.

As well known by sight to the majority of Edmonton citizens for more than 30 years as the names of the great of the earth are known, no one was at the deathbed of the colorful Edmontonian.

Detective Harry Nelson of the city police department, found Stonewall, lying fully clothed, on his bed at 7:25 a.m. Friday.

Chief Coroner Dr. E. A. Braithwaite said death was due to "natural causes."

Sonewall's real name was Thomas Ashton and as nearly as could be ascertained, he was 71 years old.

Everybody in Edmonton, it seems, knew Stonewall Jackson.

A huge, rugged figure of a man, he strode about the streets, his colorful garb and dignified mien being enhanced by an ever-present growth of shaggy black whiskers.

Stonewall Jackson

A veteran of the First Great War he delighted in his universally accepted name of "Stonewall Jackson."

He used to tell people he originally obtained the name because of his resemblance to the great United States commander in the American Civil War.

WITHOUT A trace of boastfulness he would remark:

"Strange as it may seem, the roar of cannon held no terrors for me on the battlefields of France."

STONEWALL attained nation-wide fame several years ago for giving his blood to the sick an in-

Some Disagreement

Rush First Report On Global Army

By LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, April 11—(AP)—Several important areas of disagreement remained today as the highly secret military staff committee, charged with organizing an international police force, rushed a first report for the United Nations Security Council.

SOURCES considered extremely reliable said that the committee of admirals and generals from the five major powers would take a formal vote on the entire report just before passing it to the council, April 30. On the basis of the present situation, these sources said, the vote would be four to one, with Russia in the minority.

Regardless of the actual vote, the Soviet Union stands opposed to the majority on two major points, understood to be:

1. RUSSIA insists that all forces drafted into a global army should be sent back to their home countries immediately upon dissipation of a threat to peace. The other powers contend that such forces may come from bases outside home territory and should not be forced to go all the way home.

For instance, acceptance of the Russian view here would leave the Red Army the only major fighting force in the immediate area of the Balkans.

2. RUSSIA wants the Big Five to earmark "equal" contingents for the global army. Under this plan all five would furnish the identical number of battleships, bombers and soldiers. The other countries on the committee were said to insist on "equivalent" contributions, whereby one country might provide more planes and less soldiers.

Until Autumn

Subsidy on Wheat To Be Continued

By DICK JACKSON

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, April 11—While the Dominion government is dropping the butter subsidy at the end of this month, there is "no immediate intention" of ending the subsidy on wheat milled into domestic flour, prices board and agriculture department officials said today.

DROPPING OF the butter subsidy will bring an immediate eight to nine cents a pound increase in the consumer costs, likely to be further raised another four or five cents through an upward adjustment in the price ceiling to advance returns to the producers.

When the government subsidy on wheat milled into domestic flour is dropped—and this action will not be taken before next autumn—it will mean increase in the consumer cost of bread of two to three cents per loaf.

THE SUBSIDY works this way: Flour mills buy wheat at $1.55 a bushel and receive a subsidy that brings the cost down to 77½ cents on all grain going into flour for Canadian consumption. The millers must refund part of the subsidy, however, the amount depending on their position in relation to excess profits taxes.

Mayor Seeking World Premiere Of Crosby Film

If the emperor is going to waltz, Albertans want him to go into his dance in their own backyard first.

Mayor Harry Ainlay announced today that he is negotiating to have Edmonton set as the locale for the world premiere of "The Emperor's Waltz," which was filmed for the most part, at Jasper Park.

The entire Hollywood company went to the famed resort last summer and used Jasper as locale for the film which was taken in technicolor.

If he fails to obtain the world's premiere, Mayor Ainlay wants Edmonton to have the first Canadian showing. And he is going to try to get the picture's stars, Bing Crosby and Academy Award-holder Joan Fontaine to make a personal appearance with the showing of the picture.

Remove Woman's Body from River

The body of a woman, about 30 years old, was taken from the Saskatchewan river shortly after noon on Friday by city police. There was nothing by which she could be identified, and the body obviously had been in the water a long time.

The body was discovered by a group of boys who were playing on the bank. It was in the middle of the river, just above the low level bridge.

On arrival at the scene, Constable Edwardson waded out into the river—it is shallow now at that point and brought the body to shore.

It was removed to Andrews-McLaughlin funeral home. The only articles about the woman's clothing were a book of street car tickets and three keys.

Police recalled that on April 3, 1946 they received reports of screams being heard from the river below the 105 street bridge. Nothing more was heard in regard to the screams, or the circumstances which caused them. They could not be linked up with any persons reported missing.

Twice-Convicted Murderess Goes Calmly to Death

BY GLENN STACKHOUSE

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., April 11—(BUP)—Mrs. Louise Pette, twice - convicted murderess, went calmly to her death today in San Quentin's lethal gas chamber.

The grey - haired, plumpish woman went to her death without a blindfold. She was pronounced dead 10 minutes after deadly cyanide fumes choked her into unconsciousness.

She was serene to the last. She walked from the prison with her spiritual advisor and matron—Mrs. Earl Snodgrass, chaplain of Los Angeles county jail. She entered the gas chamber, sat down and looked straight ahead.

In a few seconds cyanide fumes rose. The woman who lived a violent career over the past 25 years slumped into unconsciousness—and then death.

Mrs. Peete was convicted of the murder of Mrs. Margaret Rose Logan, 60, who had employed her as a housekeeper. At the time of the slaying she was on parole from Tehachapi where she served 18 years for her first murder — the slaying of Jacob Denton, wealthy Arizona miner, 27 years ago.

Red Paper Raps U.S. Broadcasts

By EDDIE GILMORE

MOSCOW, April 11 (AP)—Ilya Ehrenburg today devoted nearly a half page in the weekly newspaper Culture and Life to a denunciation of the "Voice of America"—the United States Russian-language broadcasts—as a "false voice."

The Soviet publicist wrote that the "Voice of America" had engaged persons giving the name of Georgi Georgievich Otvetov to answer questions. (Otvetov in Russian means answer.)

"I MUST CONFESS that I have a number of questions to ask Georgi Georgievich," Ehrenburg wrote. "If you love undistorted truth, why then is there so much untruth in your broadcasts? If you want a development of friendship, why plant hostility by your words? You have scientists, writers and engineers of whom the United States has a right to be proud. You have people who fought against Fascism. You have honest people who love freedom. Why don't you let these people come to the microphone?"

Policy Rapped

Charges Truman On Road to War

By Edward V. Roberts

LONDON, April 11 (BUP)—Henry A. Wallace said tonight that President Truman's new foreign policy is leading the world down "a one way road to war."

Wallace made the charge before a sell-out audience of 3,000 at the Central Hall of Westminster, site of the first United Nations general assembly.

WALLACE'S ADDRESS was the first in a whirlwind series he is making in Britain, Scandinavia, and France. He expressed grave alarm over President Truman's program of fighting communism with dollars in Greece and Turkey and said the present American foreign policy would produce not only another world war but a new economic depression.

Wallace charged that if the present American policy is continued it would harden and "will after a time produce depression in the United States and eventually world wide war."

Wilgress Is Made Minister to Swiss

OTTAWA, April 11—(CP)—The external affairs department today announced establishment of a Canadian legation in Switzerland and the appointment of Dana Wilgress, former Canadian ambassador to Russia, as minister.

MR. WILGRESS will retain his personal rank of ambassador in the Canadian diplomatic service.

A Swiss legation at Ottawa was established April 25, 1946, when Dr. Victor Nef presented his letter of credence as Swiss minister in Canada.

Mr. Wilgress is at present attending the international trade organization conference in Geneva as chief delegate of Canada and will take up his duties as Canadian minister at Berne on the conclusion of this conference.

Long Civil War Seen in Paraguay

BUENOS AIRES, April 11—(AP)—A well informed observer just arrived from Asuncion said today that diplomats in the Paraguayan capital expect a lengthy civil war, barring unforeseen developments. Despite the rebel hold on the northern part of Paraguay, the informant said, the insurgents know they are outnumbered by trained volunteers of the Colorado party, which has supplied the bulk of the government forces.

Newfoundland May Seek U.S. Union

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 11—(CP)—Preliminary steps to determine on what basis the United States would admit Newfoundland as the 49th state were taken yesterday in the national convention, elected to discuss possible future forms of government for the island colony.

DELEGATIONS already have been selected to confer with officials in London and Ottawa within the next two months on possibilities of either remaining under a British commission government, assuming Dominion status or joining Canada as a 10th province.

Preliminary steps with regard to the United States were taken in a notice of motion in the convention. It will first have to be passed before the committee is selected.

The motion, by D. I. Jackman, stated that if it were agreeable, a delegation be selected to interview the United States government regarding possible terms of federal union.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 11—(AP)—Albert Duboise was executed today after sitting calmly in the electric chair for 15 minutes while workmen repaired a broken power line. Prison electricians discovered the break after Duboise had been strapped in the 31-year-old chair. He was executed at 5:12 a.m. CST for the slaying of Albert Willis, a taxicab driver.

Adequate Railway Earnings Necessary

OTTAWA, April 11 (CP)—Ability to obtain "adequate" earnings is necessary for railways to enable them to serve the public, L. B. Unwin, Canadian Pacific Railway vice-president for finance, told the Board of Transport Commissioners today.

MR. UNWIN was testifying in support of the Canadian railways' application for general increases of 30 per cent in freight rates.

The ability of a railway company to serve the public," he declared, "depends on its ability to earn an adequate amount over working expenses and fixed charges." It should also be able to earn a "reasonable amount" to meet its costs for additions and improvements.

So far as net earnings were concerned, Mr. Unwin said a "disquieting feature" today was that they were "falling far below essential requirements."

THE MARGIN between gross earnings and expenses was being

Phone Strikers May Appeal to Truman

By Charles Herrold

WASHINGTON, April 11 (BUP)—Union leaders today proposed open-to-the-public peace negotiations in the five-day-old telephone strike and said they would appeal directly to President Truman if the plan was rejected by management.

WITH PRESENT conciliation efforts completely bogged down, the National Federation of Telephone Workers proposed the new approach toward a master settlement in a memo to Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwellenbach. It demanded that union, government and individual telephone company representatives be brought into immediate joint conferences "for the first time" with the doors wide open to press and radio.

"In event American Telephone and Telegraph officials refuse this proposal," it said, "an effort shall be made by NFTW representatives with authority to carry our complete story to President Truman."

Plan Early Start On City Paving

A start was made Thursday by the Crown Paving Co. Ltd., on the $630,000 1947 city paving program, and it is expected to be in full swing by the end of this week, as officials of the company mobilize their crews.

The work already started is the three blocks on 87 street, between 115 and 118 avenues. This project was scheduled for last year, but was left over because of shortage of cement.

Projects scheduled for this year include the paving of 107 avenue between 101 and 124 streets; 124 street from 108 avenue to 118 avenue; and the cross valley road over the 105 street bridge from 97 avenue to Saskatchewan Drive and 109 street.

Several other smaller projects are listed for completion this year.

Churchill Says Reds Aim to Rule Balkans

NEW YORK, April 11 —(AP)— Winston Churchill declared yesterday that the two immediate objects of Soviet Russia's policy are "Domination of the whole of the Balkan Peninsula by Communist rule, under Soviet guidance, and the conquest and probable incorporation of Turkey."

IN AN ARTICLE copyrighted by Life Magazine and The New York Times, in which he strongly commended the policy enunciated by President Truman to Congress last month, the former prime minister of Great Britain added that "the ambitions of this mighty Communist empire (Russia) and oligarchy go far beyond the dreams of Czarist days."

Churchill said the "momentous declaration" of Truman "has made it plain that vital American interests and duties exist" in Mediterranean waters.

He said that Truman's March 12 speech to Congress advocating aid to Greece and Turkey also indicated clearly "that the United States government will not suffer such interests to be molested or undermined."

WASHINGTON, April 11 (AP)—The Senate yesterday adopted the Vandenberg amendment which would give the United Nations conditional power to halt the proposed $400,000,000 United States program of aid to Greece and Turkey. Under this amendment, the international organization could end the program whenever two-thirds of the general assembly or seven of the 11 members of the security council find that "action taken or assistance furnished by the United Nations made the continuance of such (American) assistance unnecessary or undesirable."

world," Churchill wrote, "but a series of measures of a resolute character has been taken to resist further encroachments and expansion by the Russian Soviet state in Europe and Asia."

The new United States policy, the British elder statesman asserted, backs up his views expressed in his controversial Fulton, Mo., speech in March last year in which he warned against Russian expansion and urged close Anglo-American co-operation.

"On Greek affairs in 1944-45 I seemed to find myself out of step," he said. "But today it seems I was pursuing the exact policy which, little more than two years later, the U.S. has adopted with strong conviction."

CHURCHILL DEVOTED much of his article to a review of his part in halting the advances of what he described as Communist guerrilla bands in Greece in December, 1944.

He declared that if he had not given the order for British troops to fire on the bands, the Communists would have taken over Greece.

"All the talk and denunciation of British imperialism in Greece was sheer nonsense. We had no special interests to serve, except the cause of freedom; and many others are involved in that.

WE SOUGHT and seek nothing from Greece but to give her a fair chance of revival, and thus do our duty to which we had pledged ourselves by long sentiment and alliance."

ISTANBUL, April 11 (AP)—An editorial in Ulus, official newspaper of the Reigning People's party, asserted today that Russia attempted in 1941 to launch Bulgaria against Turkey with a promise of Turkish Thrace.

THE WRITER, Nihat Erim, said Adolf Hitler wrote President Ismet Inonu that Germany would not attack Turkey and that Turkey informed England of a proposed non-aggression treaty with the Reich.

Erim wrote that the British-Turkish-French alliance of 1939 contained a secret clause for Britain to give Turkey $100,000,000 worth of military equipment. He said Turkey did not press for the equipment because of British "difficulties" brought on by the outbreak of the war.

THE EDITORIAL said Turkey had proof of Russia's approach to Bulgaria.

America Intends Keep Atom Bombs

BY JAMES E. ROPER

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., April 11 —(BUP)—The United States reaffirmed today that it will keep the atomic bomb until the world accepts an atomic control plan so tight that no country could even be suspected of violations.

THE PROMISE came from Frederick H. Osborn, American delegate to the United Nations atomic energy commission. He said an atomic treaty with loop holes would be worse than no treaty at all, because it would let international suspicions continue to grow.

Osborn's statement, delivered to the New York Junior League, came after he rejected a new Soviet demand for early destruction of America's atomic bombs.

Andrei Gromyko of Russia asked members of the UN atomic commission to start work by writing a treaty to outlaw atomic weapons and require immediate destruction of existing stockpiles—meaning America's.

OTHER COMMISSION delegates however, ignored Gromyko's request, and decided to try to plan peaceful use of atomic energy before tackling the more touchy problem of controlling atomic weapons.

"narowed to an alarming extent," Mr. Unwin declared.

For the first two months of 1947, the CPR had suffered an operating deficit, and Mr. Unwin said a check of records back to 1910 had shown no such condition ever occuring in that 36-year period.

Recounting CPR moves to cut down expenses, Mr. Unwin said the company between 1936 and 1946 had withheld $100,000,000 in earnings from its shareholders and used the amount to reduce its funded debt and for conditions and improvements.

ADDITIONS and betterments, he said, should be financed from earnings—rather than through borrowings—wherever possible. Borrowing could increase fixed charges without a corresponding increase in earnings, which involved "serious risks."

Asked about the returns received by the CPR's ordinary shareholders, the vice-president said that in the last 15 years they had received an average return of .92 per cent per year in the amount invested.

The shareholders had paid into the company treasury $413,000,000 for shares with a par value of $375 000,000.

THERE HAD BEEN no dividends between 1932 and 1942 inclusive. A two-per-cent payment had been made in 1943, and the dividend for the last three years had been five per cent.

jured of Edmonton who required blood transfusions. That was in the years before the blood plasma technique had been developed.

Stonewall was one of those rare persons whose blood was of an "all matching" type.

It was once estimated he had given at least five gallons of blood to more than 50 men and women.

AFTER SEVERAL years of constantly contributing the life-giving fluid, however, his vitality became so greatly lowered that doctors advised him to cease giving further transfusions.

People from all parts of the continent would ask about Stonewall Jackson, when visiting here for the first time.

Born in Yorkshire, England, he came to Canada in 1898 and attributed his great strength to several years as a railway worker at heavy labor and in logging camps of western Canada.

HE SERVED overseas with the 101st Edmonton Fusiliers and the 2nd Bn, CEF in France.

For many years Stonewall has not worked, being in receipt of a small war pension.

A keen student of world affairs he could converse learnedly on any subject and delighted in long discussions about wars and inventions.

He was also quite a humorist and nearly always had a new joke for any friend he happened to meet on the street.

His clothing never ceased to be an object of wonderment.

On his head he wore a "fore and aft" type of cap, resembling that worn by the great detective character, Sherlock Holmes. His coats always rivalled the biblical description of the "coat of many colors" worn by Joseph.

ONE OF HIS favorites was a bright green, trimmed with black. He often caused people to shake their heads by wearing these heavy cloaks through the hottest weather.

A soldier's knapsack was always slung across his shoulder and he carried a stout walking cane.

He was very proud of a fine cane carved for him by Rice Sheppard, veteran Edmonton resident.

Stonewall engaged in many lively debates through letters to the newspapers from time to time. These letters, on a wide variety of topics, were always keenly enjoyed by Edmonton readers.

A man of temperate habits, he seldom drank, his pipe being his sole source of comfort and relaxation.

He would walk miles through Edmonton streets, often at very early hours of the morning.

Funeral service will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Andrews-McLaughlin chapel. The Edmonton Canadian Legion will be in charge.

Official records have failed to reveal the whereabouts of any relatives of the deceased, who lived in Edmonton 31 years.

Soldier, philosopher, humanitarian and humorist, he will be missed by thousands.

His homely kindliness and droll humor were enjoyed by all.

Somehow Edmonton won't seem the same without Stonewall Jackson.

Conference

American merger was undone.

Molotov spent much of his time reviewing past Big Three discussions about dismemberment of Germany. He recalled that at the Big Three Tehran conference, Roosevelt had suggested the five-way dismemberment of Germany.

That was former Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles' plan which later was dropped by the United States.

THEN WINSTON Churchill and Anthony Eden came to Moscow in 1944, Molotov said, they proposed a three-way dismemberment of Germany.

He added that at Yalta the possible dismemberment again was discussed and a three-power commission was set up to study it, but produced nothing.

He concluded by stating that at Potsdam the question of dismembering Germany was rejected finally and added that even before then Generalissimo Josef Stalin had rejected the idea.

THE SOVIET LINE for months has been that the British and Americans are trying to dismember Germany while the Soviets are standing firm on the creation of a strong unified Germany.

Both Marshall and Bevin again defended the virtue of their merger, as a "step forced upon us" by failure of other powers to fulfil the Potsdam agreement on economic unity.

Both also rejected the French and Soviet plan for a special regime for the Ruhr, saying that once economic unity is obtained, there will be four-power control of all Germany.

Sask. Coalition Move Under Fire

MOOSE JAW, Sask., April 11.—(CP) — Attorney-General J. W. Corman, of Saskatchewan, said last night that union of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives in Saskatchewan centres was engineered "not so much by the politicians as by men high in the financial and industrial world."

FOR THE FIRST time in the history of Saskatoon the Liberals will have only one candidate in the next provincial election and it was rumored that there would be a similar "saw-off" on Regina and Moose Jaw, Mr. Corman said in an address prepared for transcribed radio delivery.

The issue is clear-cut, Mr. Corman said. "It is social democracy, such as they have in England, Belgium, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, New Zealand and Australia versus monopoly capitalism which is fighting its last rearguard action only in Canada and the United States."

The provincial Liberal party had "surrendered" in forming a coalition with the Progressive Conservatives, he said.

Aid for Korea

ed States was understood to be prepared to help the southern zone in those respects if the Soviets insisted on keeping the country divided artificially at the 38th parallel.

The Americans, it was understood, were ready to go ahead with the development of a Korean political structure on the local level, without awaiting Russian approval to set up a provisional Korean government.

Marshall blamed Russia for failure of the Allied policy in Korea. He proposed an American-Soviet conference this summer to review that policy. In his letter to Molotov he proposed that the Russian and American commanders in Korea be instructed now to reconvene the Soviet-American commission at once.

Marshall warned that the United States saw no alternative to his proposals except "taking without further delay such steps in its zone as will advance the purposes" of the Moscow agreement to set up a provisional Korean government as the first step toward Korean independence."

Ottawa Expects Fiscal Surplus

WINNIPEG, April 11 (CP)—The fiscal year ended last March 31 will show a surplus in the national budget, Health Minister Paul Martin last night told the junior section of the Manitoba Liberal Progressive association. Canada, today in the strongest financial and economic position in her history, thus would be the first of the major countries engaged in the Second World War to show a surplus in national financing, he said. This had been achieved despite a 43 per cent reduction in the national budgets compared with 1945.

Violence Flares In Coast Strike

VICTORIA, April 11—(CP) — violence marked the second day of the Yarrows Limited shipyard strike here when AFL workers defied a CCL picket line today. Fists flew when pickets attempted to stop workers from entering the plant, but provincial police on duty quelled the disorder. It was of short duration. One worker received a punch on the chin and retaliated by bringing a lunch box down on his adversary's head. Others suffered black eyes, bleeding noses and cut ears.

May Once Again Suspend Tariffs

OTTAWA, April 11—(CP)—The revenue department commenting on the re-imposition of tariffs waived during the war to keep the cost of living down, has indicated that the tariffs may be temporarily dropped again if they have any serious effect on the prices of essential commodities entering Canada.

DEPARTMENT officials said last night they expected re-imposition of the tariff schedules would have little effect on the cost of living, but that they were adopting a wait-and-see attitude.

They were commenting on an earlier announcement that the tariff schedules would come back into effect from March 31 following expiry of the Emergency Transitional Powers Act.

Expected to be affected among Canada's present imports are bananas, crude rubber, peanut oil, watches, electrical generators and some other electrical equipment. Coal briquettes for use in Manitoba and Saskatchewan now will be subject to duty and imported bituminous coal used for manufacture of synthetic rubber no longer will enter Canada duty-free.

Germany Held Most Dangerous

Reveal Roosevelt-Vatican Views

WASHINGTON, April 11 —(AP)—President Roosevelt wrote Pope Pius XII on Sept. 3, 1941, that Russia's dictatorship was less dangerous to humanity than Hitler's, a newly published book disclosed today.

THE VOLUME ALSO says that the United States learned six months in advance of Hitler's plan to attack Russia, and promptly notified Moscow.

The book, published by the MacMillan Company, is entitled "Wartime Correspondence Between President Roosevelt and Pope Pius XII."

Myron C. Taylor, presidential representative to the Vatican, has written the introduction and explanatory notes.

Because of Communist denial of religion, Taylor says in his notes, the question of aiding Russia was a problem "not only for governments and nations, but for all churches. This was true in a special way for Americans of Catholic faith, who were aware of the encyclical issued by Pope Pius XI in 1922 which contained a broad condemnation of atheistic Communism." Consequently it was thought important to get a Washington-Vatican exchange of opinion.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT wrote: "In my opinion the fact is that Russia is governed by a dictatorship, as rigid in its manner of being as is the dictatorship of Germany. I believe, however, that this Russian dictatorship is less dangerous to the safety of other nations than is the German form of dictatorship."

"The only weapon," the late president continued, "which the Russian dictatorship uses outside of its own borders is Communist propaganda, which I, of course, recognize has in the past been utilized for the purpose of breaking down the form of government in other countries, religious belief, et cetera.

"Germany, however, not only has utilized, but is utilizing, this kind of propaganda as well, and has also undertaken the employment of every form of military aggression outside of its borders for the purpose of world conquest.

"I BELIEVE the survival of Russia is less dangerous to religion to the church and such, and to humanity in general than would be the survival of German dictatorship.

"Furthermore, it is my belief that the leaders of all churches in the United States should recognize these facts clearly."

He expressed the hope that Russia would recognize religious freedom as a result of the war.

The correspondence between the president and the Vatican started in December 1939, when the president sought all possible aid to stem the spread of war. As early as February, 1940, President Roosevelt was considering four bases for peace, Taylor writes, and asking an expression of them from the people. He was thinking of: freedom of religion, of communications, of trade among nations, and of reduction of arms.

LATER PRESIDENT Roosevelt wrote the Vatican of the "Four Freedoms" as he and Winston Churchill, Britain's wartime prime minister, had talked them over in their Atlantic meeting. He said of them: "I am convinced that such a re-birth of the moral sense of humanity can muster a force indefenitely greater than that of a transient parade of arms with nothing behind it save the confusion and corruption of a group which has lost its spiritual values."

President Truman, in a short foreword, says the publication of the letters is " in the American tradition of open diplomacy. The record belongs to all who sought peace through victory, and continue to seek the blessings of universal peace and security and well-being."

Annual Report Out

CPR Re-Establishes Pre-War Services

MONTREAL, April 11 —(CP)— The year 1946 provided welcome opportunities for the re-establishment by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company of services which were suspended during the war and for further improvements in the field of transportation, W.M. Neal, CPR president, stated in the company's annual report for 1946.

"THE DIFFICULTIES which the transition period presented were largely surmounted. The Dominion enjoyed general prosperity and the demand for rail transportation was well sustained," Mr. Neal said.

"The distorted relationship between the price received for transportation service and the prices paid for labor and materials prevented your company from earning the reasonable returns, which might have seemed assured under these favorable business conditions," he added.

"Although gross earnings in 1946 were 21 per cent higher than in 1928, the previous peacetime record year, net earnings were 61 per cent below the 1928 net and represented a return of only 1.6 per cent on the investment in railway property, compared with five per cent in that earlier peak year."

FINANCIAL STATEMENT of the company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1946 and which was issued previously in a preliminary statement follows:

Net income was $25,134,731 or equal to $1.53 per share on the ordinary stock, a decrease of $6,479,431 from the 1945 total of $31,614,162 or $1.98 a share.

Gross earnings were $292,495,828 or $23,613,530 lower than the previous year's $316,109,024. Working expenses, including taxes, were $271,652,778 against $280,055,024, a decline of $8,402,246.

NET EARNINGS dropped $15,211,284 at $20,843,050 from 1945's $36,054,334. Other income amounted to $22, 779,794 versus $15,106,957 and fixed charges were $18,488,113 against $19,547,129. Ratio of working expenses to gross earnings was 92.87 per cent against 88.5 per cent for the year before.

Impressive Rites Mark Ford Burial

DETROIT, April 11—(AP)—The roar of Detroit's industrial might was stilled for a moment yesterday as final rites were held for Henry Ford, famed automotive pioneer.

THROUGHOUT the motor industry, in city and state affairs and in some related industries across the United States others joined in a brief tribute of silence as public funeral services were held in St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral in midtown Detroit.

Afterward the body of the frail genius, who died shortly before midnight last Monday of a cerebral haemorrhage, was taken to its final resting place in a private cemetery beside the bodies of Ford's father and mother and other relatives.

Art Exhibit

The people of this city may well be proud of the twenty-sixth exhibition held this last week in the Museum of Arts by the Edmonton Art Club.

It would be an exaggeration to say that every painting shown was a masterpiece of conception and techneque. As in every showing of the kind there was a percentage of mediocrity. But the average of excellence was unusually high. And while the bad items were not very bad, the good ones were exceptionally good.

It would be strictly within the limits of truth to point out that nowhere on the North American continent could a community of this size produce such a commendable exhibit of art.

The pertinent fact to be appreciated in a showing of this kind is not so much that the quality was high as that the quantity was satisfactory. For, from a community standpoint, it is not so important that Edmonton should produce a few great artists as that Edmonton should find a way to interest many people in some artistic medium of expression.

From this standpoint, as well as from the standpoint of quality, the exhibition of the Art Club was a notable success.

Compulsion When Needed

Whatever motives may be attributed to Mr. John L. Lewis, the "safety strike" in United States coal mines will have one good effect there, and also wherever it is needed in Canada.

Hereafter when official inspectors say a mine in the United States is not safe, the matter will not end there. It will be somebody's business to see that the operator makes it safe.

That moral will and should extend to mining in Canada, if in any area in the Dominion compulsion is not already a part of existing mining laws and regulations.

At best digging coal far below ground is a hazardous occupation. There is probably no way to eliminate the hazard one hundred per cent. But there is no reason why "gassy" mines should not be ventilated and every other known precaution taken to reduce the risk of accident. It should be the duty of public officials to see that this is done.

One Victory Anyway

The second winter since the close of the war has passed without the occurrence of any of those world-wide disease epidemics which have followed extended conflict as long as history has recorded them.

Pestilence has always followed war. The great plague of London in 1664 and 1665 was the aftermath of battle. Influenza claimed thousands of lives after the First Great War. And many expected, with the health resistance of Europe and Asia at lower ebb than at any time in history, that these last two years would have been filled with epidemic after epidemic.

But none has appeared. And to those who are beginning to feel that victory has been something of an empty affair can come the realization that one great victory has been attained at any rate. It is the victory of medical science over disease.

The world's freedom from epidemic disease during these past two years has been one of the most remarkable facts in medical records.

It constitutes a tremendous tribute to the new skill and the new weapons of medical science.

Doctors, nurses and laboratory workers merit a salute from every Canadian.

They Can Live in Peace

Mr. Bracken suggests that the democratic nations form a "bloc" of their own, aside from the United Nations organization, in order to prevent "any Communist aggressor" making war on them.

Whether it is wise for the leader of a great political party to speak in this strain is something to think about. The language could be provocative in effect, though it is not meant to be so; and there is altogether too much provocative language being thrown about the world at present.

Much better is the message which General Eisenhower gave to a gathering in Washington. He said it is "perfectly possible" for a different system of government to exist in the same world as the United States "provided it lets ours alone." That is the view that needs to be emphasized. Not only because it is safer, but because it is unquestionably true.

All down the ages kingdoms and republics, autocracies and democracies, have existed in peace save when one or other would not mind its own business and let the neighbors do the same. Czarist Russia got along well with monarchies and republics in Europe and in Asia, so long as either respected the other's right to be left alone.

Communist states and others can do likewise if they want to. They will only fail to do so if one or other intermeddles or provokes active hostility.

For the General Advantage

The argument for and against a sharp increase in railway freight rates has been resumed after the Easter holidays. When or how it will end nobody knows. The results thus far have been negative. It has not been shown that the railways can operate without more revenue. Nor has it been shown that the best way to give them the extra revenue they need is to permit them to levy a heavier toll on the freight they carry.

There is an alternative course by which railway costs could be met without raising freight rates. That is simply to pay subsidies from the Dominion treasury sufficient to meet operating deficits. It is not too far-fetched to surmise that this will have to be done, now or in future.

There is no part of Canada which does not benefit from railway service, or which would not suffer if that service were to end. But not all parts of the country contribute a proportionate share of the money which the railways collect through freight rates and other service charges.

The five hundred miles or so of northern Ontario through which two transcontinentals operate produces little in the way of revenue. The same is true of the mountain sections of the two railways—where construction costs were enormous and operating costs are higher than elsewhere. Yet trains have to be run through these areas, tracks kept in condition, and all other incidental expenses met.

There is therefore nothing alarming, and nothing extraordinary, in the suggestion that services which have to be maintained "for the general advantage of Canada" should be paid for in reasonable proportion out of general taxation. To impose the cost, almost entirely, upon traffic producing areas, and in the ratio in which they produce traffic, is in fact an unusual way to carry a public service utility.

Highways are built and maintained largely, in some cases wholly, at the expense of the taxpayers at large. Why not a share of the cost of running railways, proportioned to the non-revenue producing areas through which they have to operate?

Legs, Gold, Butter

BY ELMORE PHILPOTT

The Canadian government has made a bad blunder in setting the de-control date on butter so far ahead.

You can't buy butter in most parts of Canada. Yet you don't need to be much of a sleuth to find out that many warehouses are loaded high with it, all waiting for May first for the price jump.

One dairyman tells me that the war did strange things to Canadian eating habits. You couldn't buy table cream. The people got used to "creamo," which seems to be a sort of half-and-half. Now there is more real cream available than the people will buy. They have been educated to the weaker substitute.

PHILPOTT

PEOPLE USED to define the difference between Americans and Canadians in terms of tea and coffee. Most Canadians drank tea, most Americans drank coffee.

Tea was hard to get in Canada during the war. Coffee was more plentiful in all America. Result: Many Canadians have got weaned off tea and have swung over to coffee. This in turn upsets the international trade balance. We get our tea from the sterling area, where we have a surplus of money. We get our coffee from the harder-to-get dollar area.

HERE IS THE best merchandising story I have heard for some time. A friend asked a department store manager "how come" they were still staging line-ups for women's stockings when it was a matter of common knowledge in the trade that there was a plentiful supply for all buyers.

His answer was that, when they put them all out on the counter on a buy as you want basis, the women made scarcity-minded by wartime lineups, simply refused to buy.

When they started the queue-up practice again the women bought more than on the free-for-all basis.

ASK YOUR laundryman, your gas-meter reader, or anybody else who knows how many homes are hoarding supplies.

You will find that a great many people have stored up canned goods and all sorts of foods which were scarce during wartime, but which will soon be plentiful again.

The wholesale price indices have been steadily falling in the last few weeks in the USA. There will be a temporary rise in some lines in Canada, for we have been slower in lifting our lids than they were in the States. But the law of supply and demand will soon level things out in Canada. Prices will not continue to rise indefinitely. On the contrary, all indications are that prices will fall fairly soon in many lines of consumer goods.

IT IS ALWAYS easy to be wise after the event. But it now appears that the Canadian government was unwise, or at least premature, in trying to peg our Canadian dollar at par with US money.

The balance of trade is heavily in favor of the US, and we no longer have a surplus on our trade with Britain to offset the deficit with the US.

There is much to be said for letting money find its own exchange level. If Canadian money falls in relation to United States dollars there will be a far heavier United States tourist influx this summer. This in turn will help to even things up.

CANADA IS PLAYING the role of world sucker by forcing gold mines to turn over the gold to the government at $35 per ounce.

On the open markets of the world—such as in China and India—gold is bringing over fifty dollars an ounce. This difference leads to what is called "bootlegging" in gold.

Why our government should leave this easy money to "bootleggers" is something I can't figure out. Anyway, the Canadian mines should get the full price of the present world price of gold.

Better cash in while the cashing is still good. As long as foreigners are nuts enough to want the stuff—and pay well to get it—why should we stop them? Gold is okay for filling holes in teeth. But for filling holes down in Fort Knox, Kentucky, you might just as well throw in gravel.

Better use the stuff for human welfare before homo the sap wakes up to the real facts of life.

Saunders Wheat

BY CHESTER A. BLOOM

OTTAWA: A team of eminent Dominion agricultural scientists have won another victory over those dangerous, full moonlit, early-fall prairie nights when wheat growers hold their breath against frost. Under Dominion Cerealist Dr. L. H. Newman with J. G. Carl Fraser, spring wheat expert; A. G. O. Whiteside, quality expert; and quality tester Fred Gfeller, a new strain of stem rust-resistant, high yielding, early maturing wheat has been developed.

Named "Saunders," this strain matures from a day and a half to two days earlier than all except Garnet of Canada's other notable early wheats. In reverse, this actually means pushing back the northern frost line of Canada and opening many hundreds of new acres to sure wheat production in a very hungry world.

THE NEW STRAIN was named in recognition of the great work of the late Dr. William Saunders and his son, the late Dr. (Sir) Charles E. Saunders, who gave Canada its first truly great wheat—Marquis. A large number of earnest scientists had a hand in developing "Saunders." It originated from a cross made under the direction of Mr. Fraser between Thatcher and a Brandon selection termed 44.7, developed in 1926 as a cross between Hope and Reward wheat. "Saunders" is the eleventh generation of this crossing of high yielding, early maturing, stem rust-resistant strains.

The "Saunders" cross designated (40.31 and C.T. 406) was made in 1938. It has been under test for five years in the early wheat test and for four years in the regular co-operative test of wheat varieties. Dr. Newman, the Dominion cerealist, emphasizes that the new wheat, of which 200 bushels will be available for experimental farms this summer, is the child of many brains. Plant breeders, the plant pathologists at Winnipeg, the cereal chemists of the co-operating institutions at Edmonton, and Saskatoon, the Board of Grain Commissioners, the Ottawa Experimental Farm, selected millers in the United States and Canada all gave their help in the co-operative development and testing.

IN THE TESTS at the Alberta stations on a five-year average, Saunders outyielded Marquis and Red Bobs. In the four years average, the new variety outyielded Marquis, Red Bobs and Redman. In comparison with Thatcher, there is no significant difference in yield or loose smut resistance. In kernel character, Saunders is much superior to Thatcher, resmbling Marquis more closely. The outstanding fact is that Saunders is appreciably earlier in maturity, being almost as early as Garnet and more resistant to bunt thant Thatcher.

A FEW COMPARATIVE figures on average yields and days for maturity of the new Saunders strain compared to other well tested early wheats may be of interest. They are four and five year co-operative tests in the three prairie provinces, as follows.

	Alberta 1943-46 ave'ge		Saskatchewan 1943-46 ave'ge		Manitoba 1942-45 ave'ge
	Yield	Mat.	Yield	Mat.	Yield	Mat.
Marquis	36.9		116.3	30.4	106.9	29.4	106.4
Red Bobs 222	39.0		116.8	31.0	104.7	24.8	102.4
Regent						39.6	102.9
Thatcher	40.1		115.9	32.8	104.1	40.5	104.1
Saunders	40.7		112.9	31.8	102.1	36.3	102.2

In per cent of plumpness, the average of tests for 1943-5 showed the following: Marquis, 87.5; Red Bobs, 84.6; Regent, 78.3; Thatcher, 80.5; and Saunders, 80.8.

Per cent of shattering in those tests for 1943-45 averaged: Marquis, 5.2; Red Bobs, 18.2; Regent, 7.9; Thatcher, 3.1 and Saunders, 7.2.

Disease reactions in the 1943-45 tests averaged for leaf rust: Marquis, 45.2; Red Bobs, 69.5; Regent, 29.0; Thatcher, 69.2; and Saunders, 54.2. Fort stem rust, the reactions were: Marquis, 59.0; Red Bobs, 48.1; Regent, 0.6; Thatcher, 1.7; and Saunders, 0.9.

Loose smut, 1943-45 average: Marquis, 77.9; Red Bobs, 0.0; Regent, 35.7; Thatcher, 1.0; Saunders, 0.0.

Bunt, 1943-45 average: Marquis 20.3; Red Bobs, 34.3; Regent, 12.7; Thatcher, 36.9; Saunders, 15.3.

Root rot, 1943-45 average: Marquis, 13.9; Red Bobs, 21.5; Regent, 16.9 Thatcher, 8.6 and Saunders, 11.7.

Never again will we pay attention to the old-timers who tell us that the climate is changing. Those tales of earlier days can be matched by yarns which will be repeated 25 years from now of the Winter of '47. The severe weather is not confined to Western Ontario. In Western Canada the oldest pioneer cannot recall anything to match the severity of this Winter, the size of the drifts and the continual zero weather. The cold weather even extends south to Florida and many a Londoner has found the balmy breezes of the South not so balmy.

Happy Days Again!

Every manual of English composition warns the student to avoid the obvious. There is a danger, therefore in a news story such as the one that explorer Attilio Gatti will search for a reported superape when he takes the Gatti-Hallicrafters Expedition to Africa this summer.

If Mr. Gatti won't be offended we had best discuss it as a heartening sign of return normality. Hitler is dead but we must have our monsters. Loch Ness will be in the headlines soon, along with a "sensible" summer costume for men, a rocket expedition to the moon, synthetic soup, plastic automobiles and other peacetime playthings.

Britainia's Waves

New York Times

From the day it broke away from the British Empire, the United States has been living in large measure under the protection of that Empire, and in particular of the British fleet. This was not necessarily an altruistic action on the part of Britain; but in the days when Europe was the world's powerhouse, and when Britain held the balance of power between predatory European empires, it was to her own best interests to keep other European powers out of the Western Hemisphere. It was this interest which inspired the Monroe Doctrine, which, though proclaimed by the United States as its own, was really made effective by the British fleet. It was this same interest which in the final analysis safeguarded the freedom of all the Americas.

How to Escape Slumps

BY HARPER PROWSE, MLA

Most people are satisfied that some day in the not-too-distant future another depression will begin. Some think they see signs of it already. Some look forward to it in the hope that a period of depression will restore what they term "sanity." Others look forward towards it with fear—fear that the day which ushers in another depression will also usher in a new political and economic system. Some look forward to it with hope in the belief that it will give them the opportunity they have been waiting for to convince the people who live in Canada that they should discard capitalism as an outmoded way of life.

In the face of this fear of what the future holds practically every special interest group in the country is trying to consolidate its position so that it can hold its present position, come what may, and, if possible, gain new power as a result of other people's misfortunes. That is what lies, to a great extent, behind the restlessness which seems to mark every phase of our national life. But the lamentable part is that up to the present there has been no attempt to get all the groups to pool their problems and their brains in order to work out a solution which will be to the mutual benefit of all. They are depending on their own devices to protect their own position regardless of what happens to the other fellows.

YET WE KNOW, or we should know now, as the result of our past experiences, that the only way to stave off a disastrous depression, or, if one comes, to weather the storms successfully, lies in getting all of our special interest groups to co-operate in working out a solution which will be to the mutual advantage of everyone. Any other course is bound to lead to disaster.

Some degree of recession is probably unavoidable, but economists are pretty well agreed that a depression, especially one as serious as the one we experienced in the "thirties," is avoidable. Honest, sane thinking will reveal how to neutralize the depressive forces at work in our economy.

It is imperative that at this time every one of us should start thinking about the other fellow's problems as well as our own. Management should try to appreciate the point of view of the laborers they employ. Labor should try to appreciate management's and shareholders' point of view. Both management and labor should do a lot of thinking about the consumers' point of view. The same holds for the farmer, who should consider the people who must buy his produce, and the people who must purchase food should consider the problems facing those who produce it. Everyone of us should make an honest effort to understand the other fellow's problems just as clearly as we see our own.

I AM CONVINCED that this is the only course which offers us any hope for the future. And I am convinced that it is a common-sense course which will permit us to find solutions to practically all our problems. It seems obvious that we are going to get a lot further working together than we can working alone.

The Bulletin's Readers Say:

A FEW GRIEVANCES

The Editor, Bulletin—This is a plain old-fashioned grouch.

Three matters are considered—as under: (1) City has passed and intends proceeding with the widening of the low level bridge and has set a "tentative price."

Re such "price" no comment as yet. But! why add to that decrepit monstrosity? Why not "lay out" an entirely new site? with wide approaches and new, better highway!

Further, have the "bridge" built of stone and reinforced concrete—arch style. Can it be done? Ask Saskatoon. Also, sites for at least two more should be surveyed, one to act as a dam.

Auto drivers "tests" are to be abandoned because "a few more constables "would be required. It is presumed that the pay involved is the issue. That being so the undersigned—a burgess of Edmonton for over a generation, demands that the City of Edmonton revoke such abandonment"; do appoint at least six new, extra experienced constables to the highway department; and that drivers' tests be of paramount concern.

(3) Re "transit system." Why cannot signs be placed in rear windows of all busses designating destination to minimise transfer runners difficulties? Also what brain-wave decreed that passengers via low-level, etc seeking 95 St. and Highlands busses, should have to wait to recross many times, thereby losing bus? Let all such be dropped at original stop south of Jasper at 100th St.

Ban Hitler Stamps

BERLIN, April 11—(AP)—The Allied Control Council for Germany yesterday forbade the sale, purchase, exchange or display of postage stamps issued during the Nazi regime which carried Hitler's likeness.

Refuse To Cut Mine Union Fine

WASHINGTON, April 11—(AP)—Judge T. Alan Goldsborough refused yesterday to cut the United Mine Workers $3,500,000 fine at this time, declaring there is evidence that John L. Lewis has taken "advantage of the Centralia, Ill., mine explosion to cause a new coal strike."

THE JUSTICE, who imposed the historic fine for contempt of court last December, postponed consideration of the matter until April 24. He said he does not see how he can make the reduction even then.

The $2,800,000 cut—which would give the union a refund because it has put up a $3,500,000 deposit—was ordered March 6 by the United States Supreme Court provided the union dropped all plans for a strike in the government-seized mines.

Judge Goldsborough said Lewis and the union have not yet shown "good faith" in obeying the supreme court. The judge also said Lewis has shown "an utterly contemptuous attitude towards the courts."

U.S. Navy Loses $500,000 in Fire

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11—(AP)—A spectacular fire raging for three hours through the Treasure Island naval base was brought under control last night after destroying five buildings and valuable electronics equipment. The navy placed the total loss at $400,000 to $500,000.

THIRTY-THREE men, all but one naval personnel, were treated for injuries ranging from smoke inhalation and burns to fractures.

The fire destroyed the block long galley "K" and four smaller structures nearby but was checked before it could reach a number of buildings at the northern end of the 440-acre island.

Naval officials said $100,000 worth of electronics equipment in the galley was destroyed. The building itself, built for the 1930-40 Golden Gate International Exposition on the man-made island in San Francisco Bay was valued by the navy at $250,000. It was a complete loss.

THE FIRE STARTED in the galley from a cause still unknown. Almost two hours later it was raging out of control despite the efforts of all available fire fighters and equipment in the bay area.

One of my best sources of good hands is Fred L. Karpin of Washington, D.C. Today's hand is one I happened to watch Karpin play, and his keenness indicated to me why he can detect a good hand so easily. His five spades bid was rather optimistic, but that was his contract.

The deuce of clubs opening marked East with a singleton club, so it looked as though Karpin had to lose a club and two diamond tricks. How could he eliminate the loss of the second diamond?

After winning the first trick with the king of clubs, Karpin returned a club, and East did the obvious thing—he trumped it. Had he not led the singleton club in order to get in one of his small trumps? But all he could do now was to cash his ace of diamonds, because the other losing diamond went on the fifth club.

If Karpin had taken two rounds of trumps, West would have taken a trick with the queen of clubs and led a diamond. Of course East could have defeated the contract by refusing to trump the second club, but that would be asking a little too much.

Lad Finds Fortune War Savings Stamps

RIDGETOWN, Ont., April 11—(CP)—Sauntering down a street he had not been on before, 12-year-old Tommy Geddis yesterday found $35,400 in War Savings Stamps which police believe to have been stolen from a Blenheim mill owned by W. G. Thompson, former minister of lands and forests for Ontario.

Polish Veterans Will Aid Harvest

Alberta's share of the new group of 1,100 Polish army veterans will probably be allocated to the sugar beet fields of the southern part of the province, R. M. Putnam, assistant deputy minister of agriculture said Friday.

News that there was to be a new influx of the men was welcomed by his department, Mr. Putnam said, and indicated that the 490 Polish veterans of the first group who had been sent to Alberta were settling into their work with very little difficulty.

The labor situation in the sugar beet fields has been recognized by officials for some time as one of the largest "holes" in the farm labor picture, Mr. Putnam said.

There has been no indication as to how many of these new arrivals will be sent to this province.

Police Expose Abortionist Group

MONTREAL, April 11—(CP)—Two married policewomen who posed as unwed mothers-to-be were credited in police circles yesterday with responsibility for success in the first round of a Montreal homicide squad drive against abortion in this city where six persons died from illegal operations last year.

FOUR DOCTORS, arrested after investigations begun last month, were arraigned in criminal court on charges of conspiring to use instruments and noxious substances to provoke abortions and of obtaining money by false pretences.

Their names were given as Dr. Francis D'Amise Martin, Dr. Leon Azoulay, Dr. A. Kasachenko and Dr. Roman Palewsky. They chose jury trial and were ordered for preliminary hearing April 17.

Last year's abortion deaths were double those of 1945, city health director Dr. Adelard Groux said, but well below the 1935 figure of 20. One death has been reported so far this year and a local doctor is awaiting trial in connection with the case.

Assessment Set at $605,879 In Budget for Peace River

PEACE RIVER. — Council brought down the 1947 budget at its regular meeting recently leaving the tax levy for municipal, school and hospital purposes at the 62 mill mark of last year and adding additional four mills to cover the first assessment on the proposed water and sewage installation.

Sitting as a court of revision, council heard five appeals from the 1947 assessment. Council confirmed three appeals, reduced two and then declared the 1947 net assessment as $605,879.

Record Requisition

Council then dealt with requisitions and estimates. The school requisition of $15,645 sets a new high, being $3,200 over the 1946 figure, with a net gain of $1,388. The hospital requisition remains the same as 1946, $3,157 and the public works budget was increased nearly $2,000 to $6,510.

To provide for these expenditures and those of other departments, which remain approximately the same as last year, council budgeted for collections of $10,898 from other sources and $32,032 from tax levy, along with the water and sewage assessment of $3,700.

Greatest Increase

With the public works department showing the major increase in estimates, the town plans to build 850 feet of six foot ashphalt sidewalks, 909 feet of four foot ashphalt sidewalk, 275 feet of eight foot concrete sidewalk, purchase 18,000 feet of lumber for construction and maintenance of wooden sidewalks and spend approximately $2,000 on town streets.

Major capital expenditure will be stuccoing on the fire hall. Dealing with business tax, council gave two readings to a new bylaw, subject to acceptance by the minister of municipal affairs. The bylaw changes the method of assessment from a rental basis to square footage of floor space and is expected to increase the tax receipts from $1,483 in 1946 to $2,000 in 1947.

Work will start immediately on preparation of the water and sewage bylaw, following confirmation of the 1947 assessment. The bylaw will be prepared for consideration of the board of public utility commissioners.

Offer First Play At Grande Prairie

GRANDE PRAIRIE. — Grande Prairie Drama club scored a hit before a full house when presenting its first play, "Just Mad". From the first rise to the last drop of the curtain the play moved along without a pause.

The story, a comedy of the problems of adolescents and their parents in relation to each other and the conflict resulting from their different views, furnished much opportunity for good acting. Norine Sheehan as 15 year-old Penny on the threshold of womanhood, carried the part to perfection. Her swift change of moods and timing were particularly good. Skippy Duncan, as the boy next door, was another hit and drew laughter or heart tugs with equal ease. Lois Telfer as the mother, Ruth Peebles as the 12-year old busybody, Pat Redwood as the maid, Keith Adams as the charming wolf also were good. Others taking part were Harvey Riding, Jim Cameron, Harvey Lewis, Joyce Moon, Lyle Badstad, Eileen Miller, Alton Peebles, Earl L. Bullis directed the successful performance.

Modern Creamery At Grande Prairie

GRANDE PRAIRIE. — The Northern Alberta Dairy Pool has opened its new modern combined creamery and dairy, equipped with all machinery of the latest type and the most approved methods of handling the milk and cream. All milk and cream is received in a special receiving room, from where it is pumped into the milk and butter rooms to be kept at proper temperatures by the mechanical refrigerating plant. After the milk is pasteurized, cooled and bottled, it is chilled and stored in a cold storage room.

The butter processing room has three pasteurizers capable of handling 12,500 pounds of cream at one time.

The churn, a single roll cherry churn, has a 1,200 pound capacity every three hours. Water for washing the butter comes from a well on the grounds, thus assuring a constant supply in case of any breakdown in the town water supply.

A boiler room with a large boiler takes care of all steam heating for the entire building as well as sterilizing and pasteurizing of milk and cream.

The mechanical equipment room which controls all refrigeration, is equipped with free-on automatic controlled refrigerating units for milk and butter storage, butter tempering and sweet water tank.

E. M. Bliss, manager of the creamery, came to Grande Prairie in 1935 to take over the management of the small creamery then operated by the Edmonton City Dairy.

Production of butter grew from 95,000 pounds in 1935 to over 300,000 pounds in 1946. Cream now comes from north of Fort St. John, B.C., to Spirit River and all points between. There is a small creamery at Valhalla. Mr. Bliss started in the creamery business in Olds in 1922 and has managed creameries at Youngstown and Delburne as well as Grande Prairie.

Wilgress Lauds New Trade Plan

GENEVA, April 11 (CP)—Dana Wilgress yesterday told the opening session of the 18-state International Trade Conference here that the proposed international trade organization is the keystone to the arch of international economic co-operation and there must be a spirit of "give and take and mutual readiness to accept sacrifices" in working toward this goal.

WILGRESS, retiring Ambassador to Russia and leader of the 24-member Canadian delegation to the conference, added: "All forms of co-operation between nations conflict to some degree with sovereignty. This is so when any two countries conclude any sort of an agreement with one another. The world is becoming smaller as new forms of transport are developed and each increases the complications in international relations."

The conference—at which Canada, Britain and United States form the "Big Three"—is not being attended by Russia. However, the 18 countries represented handle three-fifths of the world's trade.

THE CANADIAN delegation chief said it was difficult to exaggerate the importance to the world of an international trade organization.

"It will play its part in the field of trade comparable to that played by other specialized agencies of the United Nations in other branches of international economic co-operation."

Spending More Cautious

U.S. Business Trend Is to Leveling-Off

NEW YORK, April 11 —(AP)— Business in the United States is still showing an over-all rising trend, but there is evidence in some sections of the country of a leveling-off. The average citizen is spending more cautiously. Retail sales are beginning to drop in some cities. This is one of the first things the economists watch for as warning of a readjustment and possible recession.

IN GENERAL, American industrial production is ahead of last year and employment is high. Preceding articles in this series indicated the post-war boom is expected to continue for at least another three months, after which most economists expect some sort of a recession, or "readjustment."

Kansas City, St. Louis, Dallas and San Fransisco are among the centres where the fall in department store unit sales is most noticeable, a survey by Associated Press bureaus throughout the country shows. A production decline is reported from Philadelphia.

IN GENERAL, however, business is booming. The public still needs automobiles, regriferators, electrical appliances and other durable goods. There was $28,247,000,000 in circulation last week, up $77,000,000 from the preceding week and $335,000,000 above a year ago. It was only slightly below the all-time high of $29,163,000,000 for the last Christmas period ending December 26.

Omit Beauty Code Clause from Order

Disputed section of a reported Alberta Beauty Parlor code has been suspended and will not be reconsidered by the provincial government in the "immediate future," Hon. C. E. Gerhart, minister of trade and industry, announced Friday. This section dealt with advertising of prices and those in the trade could not reach agreement on it so the government has decided to suspend any action on its implication.

TWO SECTIONS of the proposed code dealing with internal operations of the beauty parlor organization have been authorized by the government. Those deal with trade schools and regulations on the number of apprentices going into the business.

Another clause would require an apprentice to serve 200 hours or one year under a qualified operator, and another year's apprenticeship in shop before becoming qualified to operate his own shop or employ help.

Mr. Gerhart said the original master code, apart from dropping the disputed section, had been "changed in many places in aspect to fees." Printing of the revised regulations was underway this week but copies are not yet available.

He said the government was not satisfied the clause regarding advertising of beauty parlor prices met with the approval of the entire trade. Until agreement can be reached within the trade the government proposes no action on this question, he said.

Make New Plastic From Flax Seed

SASKATOON, April 11 (CP)—The experiment is still in the laboratory stage and its participants are just feeling their way but chemists at the University of Saskatchewan are making plastics from flax seed, possibly the first made from that grain.

WITHIN A YEAR or so if all goes well they hope to produce a plastic which combines strength, durability and water-resistance.

Both Dr. E. Y. Spencer, associate professor of chemistry at the university, who is directing the work, and Claude R. Usher, senior chemical engineering student, who is carrying out the experiment, emphasize that their plastics are not yet perfect but they have hope.

Urges U.K. Loan

CAPETOWN, April 11.—(Reuters)—J. G. Derbyshire, British-born member of the pro-British Dominion party last night appealed to Prime Minister Smuts in the house of assembly to offer Britain an interest-free loan of £100,000,000 ($400,000,000). The money, he said, could easily be raised, spent in South Africa and sent to Britain in the form of goods and foodstuffs.

Start Suit Against Church

"Heirs" Claim $800,000,000 In New York Real Estate

By Michael O'Mara

ABERVON, Glamorganshire, Wales, April 11 —(CP)—David Needs, 45-year-old former coal miner and sailor, will leave shortly for New York, determined to "overcome all obstacles" standing between himself—and 400 relatives—and a Manhattan "estate" estimated at $800,000,000 which the family claims as a rightful legacy.

THE FAMILY has instituted legal action against Trinity Church Corporation in New York and the church's tenants for "recovery" of some of the most valuable real estate on Manhattan Island in the downtown Broadway-Wall Street area.

("Fantastic!" commented Dr. F. S. Fleming, rector of Trinity Church, when told of the claims against the New York parish. Dr. Fleming added: "Every banking house we do business with has approved our deeds and title to the land. It has all been duly certified and has been approved by state courts on two previous occasions.")

SIMILAR SUITS on behalf of persons claiming to be the heirs of Robert Edwards, 18th century Welsh settler near the Hudson river's mouth, failed in 1925 and 1934 but Needs told reporters:

"It is our land. We are going after it and nothing shall stand in our way. A previous claim made in 1925 was abandoned because family funds ran out. That won't happen now. We are not short of money and will overcome all obstacles. I will leave for New York as soon as I am so instructed by our lawyers."

NEEDS SAID he had been advised by a Boston genealogist that Edwards died more than a century ago unmarried and apparently intestate.

Thus Edwards' five brothers and one sister did not inherit lands which Edwards was said to have leased to the Trinity Church Burial Company for 99 years, the lease supposedly expiring in the 1870's.

TRINITY CHURCH authorities often have denied that the church, founded in 1698 and the oldest in New York, was once on leased property and they have steadfastly maintained that the site was an original land grant from Queen Anne.

The two men charged with his death were sent up for trial following preliminary hearings here Feb. 14 last. They are to be tried before Chief Justice W. R. Howson.

The request was sent by Lt.-Gen. Clarence R. M. Huebner, European command chief of staff, to the chief of the Polish military mission, Allied control authority, Berlin.

Only 19 Survivors Extermination Camp

AMSTERDAM, April 11—(AP)—The Netherlands Red Cross said in a report published yesterday that of 34,313 Dutch Jews deported to the German annihilation camp of Sobibor, 50 miles east of Lublin, Poland, during the war, only 19 survived. The report said the Jews customarily were gassed, 600 at a time, immediately upon their arrival at Sobibor.

SPORTS

HAROLD DEAN, Sports Editor

CALGARY, APRIL 11 — A FINAL count of 10-3 and everybody excepting the goalie figuring in the scoring looks fairly conclusive and Calgary Stampeders were easily that much better than Reo Flyers here Thursday night.

The Winnipegger's will have to show a lot more than they did in the first game to stop the Stamps from taking the Western senior final in three straight. Clint Allbright will be here for Saturday, but the Flyers will need considerably more punch than the bespectacled Manitoba university student can provide to get very far with Calgary.

The Raleigh line with Fabro (drafted from the Stylists) and McRae, looked good, and Bunny Nicholson held his end up well, but that quartet told most of the Winnipeg story. To be quite frank, the Flyers are not in Calgary's class and as constituted last night, would have trailed the field had they been entered in the Western Canada League.

Fisher Started Scoring

STAMPEDERS DIDN'T NEED FISHER last night, but in addition to scoring Calgary's first goal, Joe was a very useful citizen for the home club all through the game. He made his first appearance at the seven minute mark in the first period, coming on with Cairns and Dame, his old line-mates, and he received a real ovation from the crowd.

Joe doesn't appear to be in any too good shape, but he hasn't forgotten how to cut in from right wing and few enemy wingers get past him travelling in the opposite direction.

Doug Cairns looked more like the Cairns of yore and there is just a lingering suspicion that Fisher may be the reason. In any event, Doug was skating faster and checking better than at any time this season and his three assists are proof he wasn't any passenger.

It took Red Hunter a long time to hit the scoring summary, for 10:15 in the second period is a little late for Ken, especially when goals were coming as often as they did last night. However, Hunter picked up a pair and helped in another. Dunc Grant was the best of the Hunter line and was flying all night. Brownridge wasn't going his usual lick until late in the game, but he was out for a considerable part of the second period for a patching job.

Flyers Looked Good in Second

FLYERS DID THEIR BEST WORK in the first half of the second period. Stampeders, as usual, turned in their worst hockey in the sandwich session and in the early minutes were outplayed by the Manitobian's by the proverbial country mile.

Stamps had only two shots on Nicholson in the first 10 minutes of the period and at 13 minutes, Flyers had outshot them 13 to 3. From there, however, it was different but even at that Winnipeg held a 16 to 12 edge for the period.

Calgary held a wide margin in the final period and poured 10 shots at Nicholson as compared to four (one in each five minute stretch) on Dertell. Stamps outshot Flyers 8-7 in the first, giving them a 30 to 27 margin for the game.

McRea Outstanding

BEST GOAL OF THE NIGHT was Red McRae's early in the third period while his team was short, Fabro having been jugged for tripping Michaluk. It was a beautiful effort and Red stick-handled through the entire Calgary team and then drew out Dertell. Raleigh nearly duplicated in the closing minutes, but Dertell got his toe on the puck. McRae was just about the best man on the ice.

Coach Jack Arbour threw out a line midway in the third period and it was a good one—Hunter at centre with Fisher at right and Dame at left. Dame was particularly effective late in the second and in the third period. McRae was injured half way through the final session and retired, later being sent to the hospital for an X-ray of his injured left wrist.

The press box was bulging. Harvey Dryden of Winnipeg Free Press, Bill Good of the Tribune, and Ken McConnell of the Vancouver Province were included amongst visiting firemen. Coley Hall of Vancouver Canucks and Paul Thompson were giving the boys the once-over and Mac Colville of Edmonton and "Chuck" Millman of Vancouver, also had a press-eye view of the proceedings.

Robinson First Negro Become Big Leaguer

By Joe Reichler

BROOKLYN, April 11 —(AP)— Jackie Robinson, brilliant negro infielder, Thursday became the first of his race to break into modern major league baseball when president Branch Rickey of Brooklyn Dodgers announced the purchase of his contract from Montreal Royals of the International League.

The terse bulletin distributed to the press yesterday by Arthur Mann, assistant to Rickey, during the fifth inning of an exhibition game between the Dodgers and Royals, read:

"The Brooklyn Dodgers today purchased the contract of Jackie Roosevelt Robinson from the Montreal Royals."

NO OTHER information was given. The purchase price was undisclosed. It was a straight cash transaction with no clauses involved. Robinson, who appeared at first base for Montreal against the Dodgers in yesterday's game, will join his new club today. Montreal is owned by the Dodgers and won yesterday's game 4-3.

While Dodger officials declined to comment, it is believed the former University of California at Los Angeles athlete will appear at first base for the Dodgers in today's exhibition game at Ebbets Field against New York Yankees.

THE NEWS OF Robinson's purchase by the Dodgers came with startling suddenness although in recent days it had been generally believed he would be brought up on or before the opening day of the season. Up to the last minute prior to the official announcement, Brooklyn officials were silent on the negro's status.

After the game Rickey said he reached a definite decision regarding Robinson just five minutes before making the announcement.

Reached after the contest, Robinson said: "I am happy to be with the Dodgers. I am glad that Mr. Rickey and the others on the Brooklyn club have the confidence in me and I certainly shall give them the best in me."

RICKEY DECLARED that Leo Durocher, manager of the Dodgers until suspended Wednesday by Commissioner A. B. Chandler, had recommended during the spring training season that the negro be brought up and that the three Dodger coaches and manager Clay Hopper of the Royals voted unanimously Wednesday night to promote Robinson.

Robinson didn't come to the Dodgers by accident. When Rickey decided that the abolition of the color line in baseball was inevitable, he decided to get the best player in negro baseball. He rotated three scouts through the negro leagues, Tom Greenwade, now with New York Yankees, George Sisler and Clyde Sukeforth.

WITH DODGERS—Jackie Robinson, who performed exceptionally well with Montreal Royals of the International League last year, yesterday became the first negro in baseball history to be placed on the roster of a major league club when Brooklyn Dodgers purchased his contract from the Montreal club. He is expected to hold down the regular first-base job with the Dodgers.

Throughout the summer of 1945, Sisler and Sukeforth patrolled the negro circuits. Although they were given no chance to compare notes and made separate notes to Rickey, each recommended Robinson as the best player in negro baseball and the one who offered most as a potential major leaguer.

Stampeders Trample Winnipeg Club 10-3

Outclass Flyers In Opening Game Of Western Final

By Lorne Bruce

CALGARY, April 11 -(CP) —Calgary Stampeders walloped Winnipeg Flyers 10-3 here last night in the first game of the Western Canada senior hockey finals before a capacity crowd of 5,200 fans.

Stampeders, defending Canadian champions, outclassed Winnipeg except for the first half of the second period and gave every indication that unless the Flyers show a marked reversal of form the best of five series will go only three games.

SECOND GAME will be played in Calgary Saturday and the third in Winnipeg Monday.

The Albertans took a 3-0 lead in the first period, increased the margin to 7-2 in the second and outscored Flyers 3-1 in the final 20 minutes.

The scoring was well distributed throughout the Calgary lineup with Red Hunter and Dunc Grant each firing two while Joe Fisher, Syd Craddock, Bunny Dame, Bob Brownridge, Art Shoquist and Doug French each counted one.

WINNIPEG scorers were Hugh Bell, Bob MacDonald and Don McRae.

Jack Arbour's Stampeders had a definite margin on play except in the first half of the second period when Flyers had 13 shots on the Calgary net while Stampeders let loose only three at Nicholson in the Winnipeg goal.

Don McRae, rookie Winnipeg winger, had to leave the ice in the third period after being checked by Joe Fisher of Calgary. It was not known immediately whether McRae's wrist was fractured or badly sprained or whether he would be able to play Saturday.

WINNIPEG—Nicholson; Sykes, Sulker; Fabro, McRae, Raleigh. Subs: Telecoe, Craig, Bell, MacDonald, Kernahan, O'Connell, Kornek.

CALGARY—Dertell; Michaluk, Shoquist; Hunter; Grant, Brownridge; subs: Cairns, Dame, Fisher, Wilder, Craddock, Desmarais, French.

Officials—Ike Morrison, Moose Jaw, and Jimmy Creighton, Brandon, Man.

FIRST PERIOD: 1—Calgary, Fisher (Wilder) 8:37; 2—Calgary, Craddock (Cairns) 9:18; 3—Calgary, Dame (Desmarais, Cairns) 14:41; penalties—none.

SECOND PERIOD: 4—Winnipeg, Bell, (Fabro) 2:12; 5—Winnipeg, MacDonald, (Bell) 2:48; 6—Calgary, Hunter, (Fisher, Craddock) 10:15; 7—Calgary, Grant (Wilder) 15:46; 8—Calgary, Hunter, (Brownridge, Grant) 16:29; 9—Calgary, Shoquist (Cairns) 19:07; penalties—Macdonald, Shoquist, Telecoe.

THIRD PERIOD: 10—Winnipeg, McRae, 2:18; 11—Calgary, Grant (Hunter, Brownridge) 6:16; 12—Calgary, Brownridge (Grant, Michaluk) 14:36; 13—Calgary, French (Desmarais, Wilder) 15:02. Penalties—Fabro, Michaluk.

Goldsworthy Back From Baltimore

Leroy Goldsworthy, well-known local athlete, returned home Friday morning from Baltimore, Maryland, where he coached the Baltimore Clippers of the United States Eastern Amateur Hockey League for the past two months. Goldsworthy left Edmonton on February 15 for the east following an S.O.S. from the Baltimore club which at that time was floundering in the league cellar.

UNDER HIS able coaching the Clippers finished up in second place, only one point behind the league - champion Boston Olympics who play Los Angeles Monarchs, Pacific Coast League champions in a series in the east for the U.S. amateur title.

"Goldy" refused to say whether he planned to return to Baltimore next winter as the 1947-48 season was too far away. He will spend the next few weeks on the fairways getting into shape for the golfing season. He plans to leave for Jasper Park Lodge about the last week in May to resume his duties as assistant professional at the Jasper course.

GOLDSWORTHY saw New York Yankees play an exhibition game against Baltimore Orioles of the International Baseball League last Friday afternoon. "Those Yankees looked mighty good to me and they may surprise this year. It was a one-sided contest all the way with the Yanks showing plenty of power at bat and afield," he said.

Boston Unable Make Trip

Montreal Sextet to Make Tour With NHL All-Star Aggregation

MONTREAL, April 11 —(CP)— General manager Frank Selke of Montreal Canadiens announced last night that an all-star team of players from five National Hockey League clubs, instead of Boston Bruins as a unit, would make the post-season western tour with Canadiens.

Manager Art Ross of Bruins notified Selke late Thursday that five Boston players have been ordered by the club physician to play no more hockey this season and that therefore the team as such cannot follow through with original plans.

MANAGER JACK ADAMS OF DETROIT Red Wings will select and head the new opposition to Canadiens and it is expected to include players named to the official NHL all-star team, yet to be announced.

Adams, in Montreal for the Stanley Cup final between Canadiens and Toronto Maple Leafs, has already chosen defencemen Jack Stewart and Bill Quackenbush from his own club. He also has received permission from coach Frank Boucher of New York Rangers to use goalie Chuck Rayner.

Invitations have been sent to the Boston Bruins' Kitchener line —Milt Schmidt, Woody Dumart and Bobby Bauer—to join the squad individually.

ADAMS SAID HE HOPED TO GET permission from Chicago Black Hawks to use the Bentley brothers, Max and Doug. Max led the league in point-scoring this season.

Just where players from Toronto would fit in was a matter of conjecture at the moment. Adams had no immediate comment as to any tentative selections from the Leafs, and it was a certainty Canadiens would have nothing to say, at least while the two teams are still fighting for the Stanley Cup.

Moose Jaw Wins 3-1

West Junior Series To Go Eight Games

REGINA, April 11 —(CP)— Showing superior finish around the goal-mouth, Moose Jaw Canucks wiped out an early one-goal deficit to wind up on the long end of a 3-1 score over Brandon Elks and tie their best-of-seven Western Canada junior hockey final at three games apiece, with one game tied. The eighth game of the series will be played here Saturday night.

Close to 6,000 fans packed the Queen City Gardens to watch what could have been the final game of the series, had Brandon won, but the Cancuks, fresh from their 7-4 victory Tuesday night had other ideas.

Vic Kreklewetz, Harvey Stein and Herb Lovett tallied for the Canucks while Gordie Watters registered the lone Elk counter.

After Brandon had taken a one-goal lead in the first period, on Watter's effort, Canucks rallied in the sandwich frame, blasting in two goals, one by Kreklewetz and the other by Stein. Lovett's counter in the final session blasted the hopes of the Brandon supporters.

BRANDON — McDermid; Kaiser, Johnson; Dunsmore; Evans, Watters; subs: Burman, Hergesheimer, Manson, Tergeson, Campbell, Mann, Chmeil.

MOOSE JAW—Bentley; Tarala, Bedard; Prystai; Juckes, Kreklewetz; subs: Stein, Wilson, H. Lovett, Hunchuk, G. Lovett, Wylie, Thompson, Gaudine.

Officials—Pep Moon, Edmonton, and Chuck Hodgson, Port Arthur.

FIRST PERIOD: 1—Brandon, Watters (Evans) :12; penalty—Bedard.

SECOND PERIOD: 2—Moose Jaw, Kreklewetz (Juckes) 2:08; 3—Moose Jaw, Stein 6:34; penalty— Tergeson.

THIRD PERIOD: 4—Moose Jaw, H. Lovett (Wilson) 3:56; penalties—none.

Junior Setup Still Undecided

High School Gridders Given "Green Light"

Edmonton is assured of high school football this year, but no decision will be reached on the junior setup until April 18, when another meeting of the co-ordinating committee of the four athletic clubs is held, it was decided at a meeting last night in the Civic Block.

Realizing that the schools are the "birthplace" of the stars of tomorrow, the athletic club officials granted their every wish-provision of coaches, officials and equipment for all games.

CLARENCE RICHARDS, chairman of the Recreation commission, reported for the schools and outlined their demands .

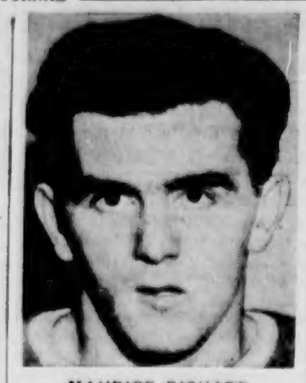
There will be at least four 12-man clubs representing Victoria, Westglen, Scona and St. Joseph's and hopes were held high that Garneau and University High School would combine to make a fifth.

Considerable discussion revolved around the proposed junior league and a motion was passed suggesting that each of the four athletic clubs be approached with the object of each taking over the responsibility of one of the four city divisions in order to field a team from the section designated and work with the high school in that district in all matters pertaining to football.

EACH DISTRICT was asked to bring in a report to the club executive, who, in turn will submit it to the co-ordinating committee at the next meeting .

Providing all the districts are agreeable to field a team, there will be four main clubs operating —Westglen, under the Edmonton Athletic Club; Victoria High School, under the Maple Leaf Club; Highlands, under the Canadians, and South Side, under the South Side Athletic Club.

Ralph Blackmer was in the chair. Others attending the meeting were: Gordon Ingram, Paul Kirk, Walter Dutchak, Al Olander, Dan McCannell, Ken McAuley, Ted Allard, Steve Olander, Earl Samis, and Jim Pyper



MAURICE RICHARD

Habs May Protest Chadwick Decision

By W. R. WHEATLEY

MONTREAL, April 11 (CP)—The match-penalty banishment of Maurice Richard suddenly became something of a cause celebre early today when the distinct possibility arose that a protest would be lodged against referee Bill Chadwick's ruling and a further possibility that last night's game would be tossed out of the records

Toronto Maple Leafs, staging a gallant comeback after a 6-0 lacing Tuesday night, reversed the whitewash with a 4-0 victory, tying the Stanley Cup finals at one-all in a penalty-studded game.

RICHARD WAS TOSSED out of the game by Chadwick late in the second period for determinedly whacking Bill Ezinicki over the noggin. Chadwick had called a double penalty against the two when Richard suddenly let loose. Ezinicki drew two minutes.

Whether Chadwick was correct in his ruling—as events turned out—was the subject of debate long after the game was over.

Coach Dick Irvin of Canadiens pulled out a much thumbed rule book and drew attention to a note to rule 49. Dick claimed flatly that Chadwick erred, but said any protest would rest with the club management.

Meanwhile President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League said Richard would remain suspended until he appeared for interrogation. At the same time, Richard incurred an automatic $100 fine, according to the same rule 49.

IRVIN'S CONTENTION is that Chadwick should have consulted the manager or coach of the Toronto club, before awarding the match penalty, getting assurance that Ezinicki could not return to the game.

Ezinicki came back into the game.

Irvin then quoted an italicised note to rule 49, which says "before applying this (match) penalty, referee must consult manager or coach and be assured that the injured player will not return to the game."

"I told Chadwick about this," said Irvin, "but he paid no attention. That was all I could do.

"It's up to the management whether a protest will be made and a replay of the game asked."

RICHARD, league's leading goal-getter in the last two years, sat in the penalty box for a few minutes after his banishment, then went to the dressing room. Five minutes before the game was over he was pacing the floor disconsolately, dressed in street clothes. He would talk to nobody. He sat on a bench and waited for his mates to enter.

They trooped in, a weary bunch, and said nothing in criticism. Neither did Irvin. To newspapermen some of the players said they thought Richard had withstood a rough passage throughout the season and in the cup series. As ace goal-scorer he was a marked man, they said, and when Vic Lynn—another Richard victim last night—and Ezinicki harried him he retaliated.

Richard May Be Suspended

Leafs Stop Canadiens In Rugged Clash, 4-0

By Syd Thomas

FORUM, MONTREAL, April 11 —(CP)— In a hockey battle including fights and penalties and a liberal sprinkling of gore, Toronto Maple Leafs downed Montreal Canadiens 4-0 here last night before 12,915 fans to square their best-of-seven Stanley Cup final at a game apiece.

The victory was sweet for Leafs, trounced 6-0 in the first game here Tuesday night but it was bitter for Canadiens, who saw their star winger, Rocket Richard blow high wide and handsome. He laid about him savagely with his shillelagh and was banished in the second period with a match penalty.

Richard, leading goal getter of the National Hockey League the past two seasons, will be dragged on the carpet before League President Clarence Campbell for discipline and may be suspended for the next game if the president decides on that punishment.

THE SQUADS square off for round three of the battle in Toronto Saturday night

Though last night's game couldn't be classed as great hockey, or a reasonable facsimile, Leafs were a vastly improved outfit. They drove in from the start and got the jump for a pair of goals within the first one and a half minutes as big Butch Bouchard of Canadiens was in the penalty box.

Teeter Kennedy and rookie Vic Lynn ripped in to sink two fateful goals even as the last of the crowd was entering the rink.

Gaye Stewart added another in the second period when Richard was serving a major and Harry Watson wound it up in the third as Canadiens were still shorthanded through Richard's second blow off.

THOUGH THE first period was tame enough, as both squads skated fast and tended to their business, the lid blew off under referee Bill Chadwick's startled eyes in the second when nine penalties were handed out, including those to Richard. All told 17 penalties were dished out in the battering, but ragged, game with Leafs getting 10, all minors.

The husky Richard, a marked man all through the season as opposing wingers checked him closely, generally fights back with his fists. But last night, goaded by the constant checks and bumps Leafs gave him, he lost his temper and it was curtains for him and Canadiens.

The first time he tangled with Vic Lynn and in the exchange that followed he laid on with his stick and opened a wide gash over the rookie's eyes. He was chased with a major.

A FEW MINUTES later, as the Rocket and Wild Bill Ezinicki were tangling, the linesmen and players separated them, but Richard lifted his stick and slashed Ezinicki over the left side of the head opening a cut that took seven or eight stitches to close. Lynn also had to be embroidered with a half a dozen stitches.

That was near the end of the period and Canadiens played a man short until the last four minutes. Richard went to the dressing room.

Rookie defenceman Bill Barilko figured in two Leafs goals, while Lynn had an assist besides his goal.

Barilko and Lynn combined with Kennedy on the first Leaf goal, swooping in to catch Canadiens flat-footed. Lynn poked the second one between Durnan's legs as he grabbed Kennedy's pass and coasted in fast.

DON METZ AND Barilko were in on Stewart's second period goal. Barilko banged one from the blue line and Metz along side of the goal, deflected the puck over to Stewart who flipped it in.

Watson's goal was a sudden one, as he came in from the side to take Gus Mortson's pass and sink a cross fire shot in the corner.

TORONTO—Broda; Boesch, Barilko; Kennedy; Meeker, Lynn; subs: Mortson, Thomson, D. Metz, Apps, Stewart, Stanowski, Watson, Poile, Ezinicki, Klukay, Bell (sub-goal).

MONTREAL — Durnan; Bouchard, Lamoureux; Macey; Peters, Chamberlain; subs: Allen, MacKay, Fillion, Harmon, Leger, Eddolls, O'Connor, Richard, Blake, Reay, Perras (sub-goal).

St. Michael's Boast Outstanding Record

By Bill Freedman

TORONTO, April 11 —(CP)— Meet Toronto St. Michael's College Majors, who finished their spring cleaning under wraps and now are shopping for silverware—the Memorial Cup.

Mr. Irish packs a powerful punch. Just glance at his record. In the regular OHA season he won 33 decisions against three losses. Seven of these were shutouts, administered by Howie Harvey in the nets.

THE EASTERN CANADA championship was awarded to Mr. Irish in just 15 fights, in which he dropped only one and scored two kayoes. In his last match Wednesday night he punished Montreal Canadiens 21-0 to set a new record for junior pucksters hereabouts. He has a mean right hook in Fleming Mackell, who set a new individual scoring mark with 82 points from his right-wing post in scheduled play.

The champ lost the Dominion crown to Winnipeg Monarchs last year, and he's determined to regain it.

"OUR TEAM IS stronger physically and better balanced than last year," said coach Joe Primeau. "Whatever team we meet (Moose Jaw Canucks or Brandon Elks) will have to be just as good or better than Monarchs were if they hope to stop us."

Mr. Irish is crafty boxer who bores in from the opening gong. his punch line of Mackell, Ed Sandford and Les Costello, which led the OHA scoring race in that order, is renowned in eastern circles for the devastating frontal barrage it lays down.

AND HE DOESN'T let up when he has you in the corner, the Ed Harrison, Rudgy Migay and Ray Hannigan line dealing out lethal body blows. When he's tired, he comes up with Johnny McLellan and Warren Winslow to catch his second wind.

On the defensive, Mr. Irish is still dangerous and cagey. His chief back-liners, Ken Kelly and Bob Paul, have often converted a rush into a rout. And he gets in telling blows, via Harry Psutka and Benny Wolt, to slow down any major thrusts.

His chin is capably protected by Howie Harvey, rated one of the best professional goaltending prospects in years.

MacPhail Chagrined At Leo's Suspension

NEW YORK, April 11 —(AP)— President Larry MacPhail of New York Yankees made it plain at a press conference yesterday that he was chagrined at the one-year suspension slapped on manager Leo Durocher of Brooklyn Dodgers and that he will be glad to "see" Leo if and when the latter ever seeks a baseball job.

In a last semi-defiance of commissioner A. B. Chandler's order Wednesday that all parties to the recent Yankee-Dodger squabble be "silenced," MacPhail talked to a room full of newspaper men for upwards of an hour and answered a fair proportion of a score of questions thrown at him

TAKING COGNIZANCE of Chandler's all-inclusive order, the redhead declared at the outset in a prepared statement: "This club will continue to release and publish any and all information pertinent and proper in connection with the operation of this club."

He gave it as his opinion that the commissioner had no right to "prohibit the release of factual information regarding any matter in which the press and public are properly concerned."

Asked if he thought the penalty against Durocher was "unjust and excessive," MacPhail replied carefully:

"I MAY HAVE SOME very strong and decided personal feelings in the matter. If so, I'm prevented from expressing them except through baseball channels."

To the question of whether he would be prepared to offer Durocher a job with the Yankees next year, he gave an oblique yet crystal-clear answer. He recalled that Durocher, when asked during the winter of he expected to see MacPhail had replied: "Sure, I expect to see MacPhail. He's my friend and he gave me my first chance to manage a ball club."

"I would like to say that I fully reciprocate Leo's feeling," MacPhail concluded.

ASKED IF HE WAS surprised at the severity of the Durocher's sentence, the Yank president replied that "I didn't know there was any hearing on Durocher except whether he wrote that column to which I objected." Chandler, in banning the Brooklyn pilot, made it clear that Leo's offences far transcended his columnar activities

MacPhail declared that the New York club at no time had asked Chandler to take disciplinary action against Durocher or anyone else.

Although he did not say so directly, MacPhail implied that he would pay coach Charles (Chuck) Dressen his full salary for the month he is under suspension, thus more or less nullifying Chandler's penalty.

Royals Take Lead In East Semi-Final

SHERBROOKE, Que., April 11—(CP)—Montreal Royals showed too much all-round power here last night for Sherbrooke St. Francis, smothering the Provincial Hockey League champions 8-3 in the first game of their best of seven eastern Canada senior semi-final playoff. Second game will be played in Montreal Sunday afternoon.

The victory for the Quebec Senior League representatives was tempered somewhat by the fact that goalie Gerry McNeil suffered an injury in the third period and was replaced in the Royals net by Paul LeClerc. Preliminary examination indicated McNeil might have suffered a broken thumb.

TOD CAMPEAU, Denis Casavant and Jacques Locas each marked up two goals for Royals, whose other tallies went to Cliff Malone and Doug Harvey. Malone and Harvey rattled home shots less than 30 seconds apart in the first period while Manny McIntyre was sitting out a penalty.

The three Sherbrooke scores went to McIntyre, Audjutor Cote and Tony Demers.

Our Town

By Jack Scott

Miles of Mss.

A gigantic black Homburg bobbed into the office yesterday afternoon and a bright little man came out from underneath it right beside my desk, introduced himself as the travelling agent of an eastern pulishing firm, and invited me to write a novel. You could have knocked me over with a feather. It would have been no trick at all with the one in that hat.

He was just a little gaffer, but he meant business. "You have merit," he said in a crisp voice with a Toronto accent. "We will be happy to consider a manuscript from you." He gave me his card. The engraving felt like neon tubing. Then he got in under the hat again, put it into low gear and trundled away.

I have been walking around in a daze ever since, beginning novels like crazy. How do you like this, for a starter:

"I opened the door to my apartment. Yamato, my man, had the night out. But I had that feeling. There was somebody in there. I flicked the switch and the room flooded with light. Then I saw her. She was crumped on my Louis XV chaise longue. The bullets, I ruminated, had ruined that yellow velvet gown, a Schiaparelli original if I ever ogled one. Hmm, I thought, foul play here, Drake. . ."

But why go on? That is as far as I ever get. I guess I have started close on to seven million novels like that in the last couple of dozen years and I never seem to get beyond the first paragraph. I go down with a crash on the first water jump.

Plot Trouble

You might guess from the above example that I tend to favor the

Thief Gets 2 Watches

A smash and grab thief made off with two pocket watches valued at $85 each after breaking in the window of the Dominion Jewelers, 10034 101 street on Thursday night.

Simon Israel, proprietor of the shop, said he locked up his premises about 7.40 p.m. and when he returned at 8.20 p.m. the left front display window was smashed.

Police found that a large stone, about the size of a soft ball had been used to smash the four feet by seven feet pane of glass.

Inquiries revealed nothing police said. No one had heard the window being shattered and no person had been seen loitering around the shop.

Sports Enthusiast, R. F. Blackmer Dies

Well known Edmonton Sports enthusiast, and member of the Lions Club Ralph F. Blackmer, 10620 126 street died suddenly at 7.30 a.m. Friday in a city hospital, from a cerebral hemorrhage. He was 61 years old.

He had occupied the chair at a Canadian Athletic Association meeting on Thursday night.

MR. BLACKMER was one of the founders of the Canadian Athletic Association here, and was president for the last 8 to 10 years. He was also president of the Athletic Coordinating Committee.

On arrival in Edmonton about 1918, he was immediately employed by the H.M.E. Evans company as a land inspector, a position which he held for 29 years.

BEFORE COMING to Edmonton he resided in Calgary. He was born in Worchester, Mass.

He is survived by his wife in Edmonton, one son, James of Whitehorse, and two brothers and one sister residing in the United States. No funeral arrangements have been made as yet.

Roads Executives Here on April 30

Theodore G. Morgan and George A. McNamee of Montreal, Executive committee chairman and secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Good Roads Association will visit Edmonton on April 30 during a western tour.

Mr Morgan and Mr McNamee confer with premiers and highways department officials of the western provinces regarding appointment of delegates to the Association's 28th annual convention at St. Andrews N.B. Sept 8-10 and selection of a western site for the 1948 convention.

Their itinerary will take them also to Winnipeg April 18, Regina April 20, Vancouver April 23, and Victoria April 25.

The CGRA conventions bring together federal, provincial and municipal representatives and Canadian and foreign experts to discuss highway problems.

Educationists Hold Conference

To promote understanding among educators, parents and students, was the theme of the Alberta Catholic Education Association convention at St. Mary's auditorium Thursday. About 200 delegates were in attendance. It was the organization's first convention.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER was the Most Rev. F. P. Carroll, who outlined christian education, and other themes.

Speeches were also given by the Most Rev. J. H. MacDonald, DD.D., Roman Catholic Archbishop of Edmonton; R. E. Ansley, minister of education, and Mayor Harry D. Ainlay.

Those elected to the new executive were: president, the Rev. J. A. MacLennan, St. Joseph's College; first vice-president, Prof J. Scott, Calgary; second vice-president, Brother Mark, Edmonton and treasurer, Miss G. Brunton Edmonton. The secretary is to be appointed by the executive.

It was stressed that the association was not a teachers organization.

Old License Plates May Still Be Used

No dead-line date, after which autos in Alberta will be required to display the new 1947-48 license plates has yet been set, Hon. A. J. Hooke, provincial secretary, said Friday.

Under ordinary circumstances, police get the go-ahead signal to pick up delinquent motorists at a much earlier date. This year, due to confusion arising from motorists neglecting to include their $1 contribution to the unsatisfied judgment fund, with their remittance for plates, it has been decided to postpone the cut-off.

Southern Highway Suffers Damage

Roads in the south of the province, particularly the main highway south of Lethbridge, suffered severe damage due to the heavy run-off of water, Hon. W. A. Fallow minister of public works said Friday.

HE RETURNED Thursday from an inspection trip of road conditions in the south, and reported that road work in the area was well under way.

It would take a month, before the main highway, part of which was under water for more than a week, could be repaired.

WORK IN the Edmonton district would also be under way within two or three weeks. One of the first projects to be undertaken being the rebuilding of the Edmonton-Jasper highway as far as Stony Plain. New stabilized base will be provided for this section of the road.

Hard surfacing the road from the Alberta Beach corner to Seba Beach is planned but this will not be completed until late in the summer.

William Peet and "Dan"

"13" Is Lucky Number

ECD Driver Completes 25 Years On Same Run

Twenty-five years of delivering milk on the same route, for the same company were completed Friday by William Peet, who supplies Route 13, for the Edmonton City Dairy. Mr. Peet has 300 customers on his route, and has seen children grow into manhood and womanhood while he was serving their families.

IT WAS April 11, 1922 that he started on his now familiar route which covers the district from 115 street to 125 street and north from Jasper to 105 avenue. Since then, except for a brief period of illness, he has delivered milk every day.

He recalled that he has had much variety in his work watching the district grow up and homes spring up where bushland used to be. "Families come and families go," he remarked, "and you meet a lot of interesting people as the years roll by."

In regard to his No. 13 route he considers it lucky and why shouldn't he?

THE TOUGHEST winter in his experience was that of 1942 when the big snow in November made it impossible to drive his popular and faithful horse Dan, and wagon through the drifts so people had to buy their milk from the corner grocers. It was the first winter that he was unable to deliver by milk. Also an attack of appendicitis kept him away from work for several weeks.

In the winter of 1945 he was finally talked into having one of those "new fangled" covered wagons. They are completely enclosed and fitted with a small stove.

"AT FIRST I found it very awkward and wanted to return to my old open wagon, but now I wouldn't change it for anything. It's just the home and I know by experience to appreciate it when we have our first warm day" he said.

During the Second World War Mr. Peet served with the Royal Army Pay Corps. Since then he has been with the Edmonton City Dairy and after his discharge he brought his wife and two children to Canada.

City Hotel Rates Going Up Monday

Edmonton hotel-operators at a meeting here Thursday decided to increase rates for accommodation by 25 cents per person per day effective on and after Monday, April 14.

Officials of the Alberta Hotel Association said that the increase parallels that decided on at Calgary last week and works out to an increase of about 10 per cent in all rooms.

The new rate schedule follows lifting last week of the controls on hotel rentals and other specified rented properties by the Dominion government.

Edmonton May Get Cup Games

Negotiations will be completed Friday, Secretary-Manager of the Edmonton Exhibition Association and P. W. G. Hardy, executive officer, Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, for the use of more games of the Memorial Cup championship playoffs to be staged at the arena.

Charles J. Weaver, president of the Edmonton Exhibition Association stated an executive meeting would be held Friday afternoon to consider an offer by Dr. Hardy for the holding of playoffs here.

He said here was a distinct possibility that Edmonton would be the scene of the games between St. Michael's Majors and either Brandon or Moose Jaw.

14,607 Veterans Receive Training

Veterans receiving vocational training under the Department of Veterans Affairs plan in Alberta totalled 4,607 to date and at these 6,000 commercial courses and were placed definitely in employment, R. F. Thompson, Ottawa director of vocational training for the Department of labor said here Friday.

MR THOMPSON is touring the provinces conferring with provincial officials and regional directors as the welfare and rehabilitation phase of the program draws toward a close.

More than 30,000 persons have started under the program since its inception.

New plans for training employees who have received unemployment insurance are being formulated.

MANY SCHOOLS are closing down. The Calgary Provincial School has been used for some time. The program is in the process of consolidation, Mr. Thompson said.

Three centres are now operated in Edmonton, one for commercial courses, one for the exhibition grounds and the USO building.

J. H. Ross, regional director for Alberta, conferred with Mr. Thompson in Edmonton.

BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE

Man to Stand Trial On Forgery Charges

Investigations following the arrest of Walter Doskotch, 9653 104 avenue, last April 1 on a charge of carrying an offensive weapon, culminated in two charges of uttering forged documents being laid against him, it was revealed in city police court Friday.

THE ACCUSED appeared before Magistrate A. I. Millar, on a preliminary hearing and was committed for trial in supreme court on two charges of uttering forged documents and another of carrying an offensive weapon.

Detective Sergeant James Peterson said that as a result of information received, the accused's room was searched on April 1, and a home made black-jack was found in Doskotch's overcoat pocket.

The cheques were passed in the city last Feb. 18 at two hardware stores. Both were for $87.50 An alleged Japanese accomplice is said to have gone into the stores, ordered a quantity of articles to be delivered to restaurants in Edson, and took the remainder of each cheque in cash. Police allege that Doskotch was the person that forged the cheques.

Masters Won't Serve Under Head Mistress

SOUTHEND, Essex, Eng., April 11.—Reuters.—Schoolmasters will not willingly serve under a head mistress, a delegate to the conference of The National Association of School Masters declared Wednesday.

A resolution was passed deploring the increasing practice of some British local educational authorities of appointing women as head teachers of mixed schools and schools for boys.

The association's president, F. A. Gibbs, said that the association had stood against equal pay for women during a century, chiefly on the ground that, while usually an employed woman provided for herself alone, a man had to provide not only for himself but also for "the hardest worked and most underpaid woman in the community — the housewife and mother."

Urge Strengthening Of United Nations

WINNIPEG, April 11—(CP)—Strengthening of the United Nations into an effective instrument of preservation of world peace and security is one of the two aspects of the maintenance of global stability which requires the closest attention of Canadians, Health Minister Martin told the Canadian Club today.

THIS WAS A long-range objective toward which many constructive steps already had been taken, he said.

The second is the immediate one of the organization of enemy and ex-enemy states to ensure against a renewal of aggression from these quarters. Only when satisfactory peace settlements had been concluded with all enemy countries would the United Nations be able to undertake fully its constructive tasks.

Because the Dominion is a great trading nation, a member of the British Commonwealth and a strategically - situated bilingual country, she could play a major role in these tasks, Mr. Martin said.

"OUR ATTITUDE in international affairs must be based on acceptance of international responsibility and the firm belief that security for Canada lies in developing a strong structure of international co-operation," he said.

Red Cross on Job In Ontario Flood

OTTAWA, April 11 —(CP)—Ottawa officials of the Canadian Red Cross Society today set up disaster relief headquarters along the swollen Rideau river, where flood waters were described by one lockmaster as "the worst in 20 years."

SO FAR damage has been confined to partial isolation of some surburban communities such as Eastview and Billings Bridge, with more than 100 families forced to evacuate their homes.

The river, whose main current is swirling at a 25-mile-an-hour clip, is said to be six feet above its normal level along its lower reaches.

Driver

He farmed in Saskatchewan for three years, but deciding that his prospects were not too bright, journeyed farther west to Edmonton, where after one week, obtained a job with the Edmonton City Dairy, starting immediately on Route No. 13. He has kept that route ever since and believes he has a record in that respect.

Pry, cheerful with that easy-going good naturedness common to all outdoor workers is a summation of Mr. Peet's friendly personality.

"Early to bed and early to rise", is one of his slogans, for he rises at 5:15 a.m. every day.

He has watched families grow up, and the children getting married, and, in some cases, delivered milk to the doorstep of grown up and married children of some of the originial customers.

HE AND MRS. PEET have eight children of their own, five boys and three girls, so his interest in kiddies is unbounded, and as a result, he has acquired a wide circle of friends among them.

The Peets live at 8730 88 avenue, and all members of the family have been active in the affairs of the Bonny Doon district. Mrs. Peet is an active club worker. Cricket is Mr. Peet's game and he was at one time captain of the Bonny Doon cricket club.

Mr. Peet said that after many years of association with his customers, he thinks they are the "best bunch in the city," and he appreciates what they have done for him.

Our Town

modern, hit-'em-in-the-puss school of detective story writing. Not a bit. Some of my very best one-paragraph novels have dealt with immens' sociological problems. Others have been pure adventure. It largely depends on what novel I happen to be reading at the time. I am as versatile as my bookshelf.

Only last week I found myself embarked on a tremendous trilogy on my life. "I was two days old when I wanted to walk," it begins. "I lay in my crib, looking up at the white ceiling. Distantly I could hear the muted sound of traffic from the street outside. There, I ruminated, was the wonderful, exciting world, filled with beautiful women and empires to be built. Here was I, strapped to this cursed bassinette. Why I asked myself, do they keep me here? Then I knew. I would have to learn to talk immediately. . . ."

But I get no further than this. My mind begins to wander, peeping into the shop windows of literature and I find myself on the brink of a brand new novel.

"Cap'n Rod tapped the dottie in his well-worn briar, tilted back in his cane chair, and his pale blue eyes (eyes, said old shipmates, that could see beyond the blue horizon) took on that familiar glow of nostalgia. For this was an important day to old Cap'n Rod and as he sat there ruminating on the past, the days of sail when men were men and devil take the hindmost . . ."

But you see how it is. Actually my trouble is that I just don't happen to have a plot. Well, that isn't true, either. I have a peach of a plot for a detective story. All about a scientist who decides to murder his wife. So he invents this teensy atom bomb, see. He drops it on his wife from a chandelier one night and it explodes just over her head. A tiny mushroom of smoke a kind of Lilliputian version of Hiroshima . . .

But I better not give it all away.

A Victim

Since the little man came in I have been wondering if he is the same publisher's agent who made a similar offer to a friend of mine we'll call Geoffrey Burbash. This Burbash, like myself, was a man who wrote short stuff that always looked a little better than it really was arnd so one day he was invited to submit a novel.

It ruined him. He locked himself in a room with a six-foot stack of white paper, two dozen 3-B sharpened pencils and a typewriter, and he nearly went crazy thinking up diversions for himself. A girl in an apartment across the way did calisthenics every morning, and this was his excuse on rising, but after that he had to invent ingenious ways of staying away from the typewriter and that long, white empty sheet of paper in it marked Page One.

He began going out with any friends who called, and, later, with people he detested. He contrived vague appointments with mysterious people, one of which diverted him to Peru for six months. He was running away from that piece of paper, and he knew it and his friends wept for him.

Of course he never did start the novel. The last I heard of him he was writing for the movies at a thousand a week, a broken man.

I SAW TODAY: R. W. McINTYRE giving his views on amateur theatrical production to a friend;

No Flood Threat In River Run-Off

REGINA, April 11. — (CP) — Breakup of Southern Saskatchewan river and runoff from unusually heavy snowfalls continued to harass some low-lying spots, but damage of heavy flooding was not considered imminent by highways officials today.

A WET SNOWFALL in the area today would, however, add to the water to be drained, officials said. But unless there was a heavy rain there would be little likelihood of widespread damage.

Water from melting snow washed out a section of Canadian Pacific Railway track near Richardson, about 10 miles south of Regina and trains were held up for six hours while repairs were made last night.

The Qu'Appelle river at Lumsden, about 20 miles northwest of here, continued to rise but had several feet more to go before overflowing, it was reported.

THE SOURIS RIVER dropped an inch at Weyburn, about 60 miles southeast of here but water still covered a section of the nearby highway and several houses in the southeast part of the city had flooded basements.

Adopt Suggestion Farm Income Tax

Two recommendations presented by the taxation committee of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce pertaining to income tax procedure with Alberta farmers, were adopted by the executive council of the chamber at its weekly meeting Wednesday.

The recommendations were worked out by the taxation committee, headed by W. Gordon Skinner, after being presented for study by the agricultural section of the chamber.

The council will press for "reasonable allowance" by the federal income tax department for depreciation on water wells and dugout construction done by Alberta farmers.

THE COMMITTEE points out that this work, involving considerable expenditure, is undertaken to increase efficiency of production but is not of a permanent nature.

In another recommendation the council will seek for wider publicity of the right of farmers to file income tax returns based on a three-year average income, instead of the straight year-to-year basis.

Many farmers are themselves unaware of this right, it is contended.

The contentious subject of daylight saving will be discussed at the next meeting of the chamber council.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED at the meeting that C. Gordon Cockshutt, Brantford, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, will visit Edmonton on May 29-30.

It is likely that arrangements will be made to have Mr. Cockshutt deliver an address while in the city.

Beef Shortage Forecast Here

An acute shortage of beef likely will develop across Canada during the next three months, R. J. Dinning, president of P. Burns and Company Limited, said here Friday.

THIS WILL be due to the necessity of moving many cattle to pasture following the severe winter that stock has endured in all parts of Canada, Mr. Dinning explained.

He thought the situation will better by August.

The meat industry faces a year of "mixed uncertainties," he said Losses were taken last year by packers because of advance of cattle market over beef ceilings and this situation still faces the packers.

Western Canada livestock production showed a little decline last year, and Mr. Dinning looks for little betterment in production before next autumn, when an increase in hog production is anticipated.

Mr. Dinning is here from Calgary on a periodical inspection tour of the Edmonton plant.

Home-School Groups Convention at Olds

Education and the home, and the co-relation of these factors in the up-bringing of Alberta's children, will form the main topics of discussion at the annual convention of the Alberta Home and School Association being held in Olds on April 16, 17 and 18.

G. F. Bruce, director of the correspondence school branch, department of education, president of the association announced Friday that 150 delegates, representing 120 home-school and parent-teacher organizations would be in attendance.

Premier in Calgary

Premier Ernest Manning will be speaker at a banquet being held on Friday night in Calgary as part of the program of the Alberta Council on Child and Family Welfare. His address will deal with some aspects of the problem of child delinquency.

Ontario Killer Judged Insane

OTTAWA, April 11—(CP)—The case of Thomas Gibbons, hefty Renfrew district farmer, appeared closed last night with the verdict of an Ontario Supreme Court jury of "not guilty by reason of insanity" of the murder of Joseph and John Fitzmaurice more than a year ago. It was the third trial of the 49-year-old Admaston Township man who, by his own confession, shot the brothers on a disputed snowchoked winter road on a cold day Feb. 1, 1946. The jury, faced with an alternative of the verdict, "guilty as charged" or the insanity verdict, were closeted 40 minutes before making their decision.

6,000 Persons Attend Meeting

More than 6,00 0persons heard Dr Charles E. Fuller, Los Angeles evangelist, in a powerful advocacy to "return to the old time religion of the bible," at the Arena Thursday night.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Edmonton Council of the Christian Businessmens' Association.

Premier Ernest Manning was chairman.

Albert Lieske, 76-year-old bachelor, was found dead in his farm home 10 miles west of Millet on Thursday according to RCMP. The district coroner, Dr. J. Melling, said the man died from a heart attack and no inquest will be held.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Q. "At what age is it appropriate for a young girl to wear nail polish?"

A. I think this depends on the individual girl and somewhat on the habits of her community. Some girls look older for their age than others. It is always poor taste to call attention to oneself. You might remember these rules. The smartest looking girls will probably delay much longer in the use of lipstick and nail polish than those who are less chic in background. If you do use nail polish choose a light shade and then employ it only on special occasions.

Q. "Please tell me how to apply lemon juice for bleaching freckles."

A. It is a good idea to feel your way along. Some skins are too sensative to apply straight lemon juice. Dilute the juice, half water and half lemon juice. Apply to the face with Cotton, and allow to dry before rinsing the face. Later you might try the solution a little stronger.

Q. "Please tell me if I am out of proportion. I am 5 feet, 3 inches tall, and weigh 110 pounds. Bust, 33 inches; waist, 22 inches, and hips 32 inches."

A. You are well-proportioned but should gain some weight.

Q. "Here are my measurements. Please comment on my figure. I am 5 feet, 6 inches tall, and weigh 120 pounds. Bust, 33 inches, waist, 24 inches and hips, 34 inches. I read your column every day and am interested in what you say about other people's figures."

A. You are well-proportioned. Unless you are very small boned you should gain a little weight.

Q. "I have written you before but you have never answered my question. I have a very big abdomen. What is the best exercise? Also what foods will put on weight, but not make fat in the figure? Please answer for my sister and me."

A. I would like to explain here that I cannot answer all of the questions I receive in the question box. There are too many of them. I try to select those which have the greatest appeal and have not been answered too recently in the question box. Others may get a free leaflet on the subject, available to you for a stamped self-addressed envelope. Keep sending your questions and I will do the best I can. The following exercise is one of the best for abdominal reduction. Lie on the floor on your back with your arms on the floor overhead, legs straight. Lift both legs and both arms and touch the fingers to the toes or legs. Slowly return legs and arms to the floor. Stretch out on the floor. You cannot add weight through diet without adding fat. The only way you can do that is by exercising.

Calls to States Still Go Through

Long distance calls to Helena and Great Falls, Montana still are going through Alberta Government Telephone switchboards and still are being completed, in spite of the strike of American telephone operators, W. J. Ragan, general traffic superintendent, Alberta Government Telephones, said Thursday.

HE COULD NOT explain the reason that operators at these two points were on duty.

"The odd emergency call goes through to other points", Mr. Ragan said, though there is often difficulty in getting an answer from the station concerned.

"If we can raise the station our calls get through without trouble but sometimes they answer and sometimes they don't," he said.

Supervising staffs have remained on duty at many points throughout the United States in spite of the strike. Switchboards at many of these points were so large that two or three supervisors cannot hope to cope with the business.

West Indies Topic Of Club Address

"Life in the West Indies", was the topic on which Dr. Jack Howe, department of animal science, University of Alberta, based his address at a luncheon of the Rotary Club held in the Macdonald hotel, Thursday. He was introduced by Prof. J. P. Sackville, University of Alberta, chairman for the day.

NOREEN BRISTOW, accompanied by Mrs. Betty Simms, provided vocal entertainment.

Mr. Howe took Jamaica as an example of life in the West Indies. Reinforced concrete houses are common, the fact being that earthquakes are frequent and brick structures never would stand up to the shock. "Obeah (voodoo), or black magic and pocomania are two religions many natives fall back on," Dr. Howe said, "and cause considerable trouble. Pocomania are tribal dances and are prohibited."

In regards to political developments, a new constitution was adopted in 1944. "Jamaica will develop into a progressive country with Dominion status," Dr. Howe said.

Dr. Howe left the West Indies in January, 1945, and joined the university staff in Sept. 1946.

Channel Cleared For Navigation

SAULT STE. MARIE, April 11 — (CP)— The ice breaker Mackinaw and the car ferry Ste. Marie yesterday completed opening a channel in the ice of the St. Marys river and were reported heading into Whitefish Bay of Lake Superior. Their work is expected to have the way open for the 1947 navigation season by nightfall.

AMERICA BEFORE COLUMBUS

(5) Indians of the South

The Southwestern area of early Indian life contains what is now New Mexico, Arizona and northern Mexico. Within this area there were two types of culture. Some tribes were nomadic, roaming, while others lived in houses of mud bricks, adobe. Most of the houses were pueblos, square buildings with several floors and rooms enough for many families. Other adobe houses were empty.

The life of present-day Indians of the Southwest gives a fair idea of the life there before white men came. Then as now there were tribes, the Navajo, Apache, the plains, and tribes, the Hopi, corn and others living in villages. There as now the Pueblo Indians raised maize, corn, and other foods and cotton. The women cloth on looms ground the corn meal between stones, made and decorated pottery.

In the old days they used to kill bears, hunted bison, and deer, used bows and arrow-tips. Their clothes were elaborate. They had garments of cotton, leather, fringed buffalo skin, deerskin garments and sandals and robes of wool, rabbit skin, sometimes trimmed with turkey feathers.

The mother was the head of the family. Each village had its council, governor and a war chief and priests. Religion was very important and there were many ceremonies.

South of the Southwestern area was the Nahua area in the Mexico and Central America to about the middle of Honduras.

Affair With Boss Leads to Trouble

Dear Miss Dix: I am a happily married woman in my forties. I adore my husband and daughter, but I like my career, too. However, my real problem lies in the fact that I have fallen in love with my boss. He is a handsome man and we are terribly attracted to each other, and I find myself spending much time in his office. I have even gone so far as telling tales on the girls under my supervision in order that I might be near him. I am afraid our meeting in the office has been rather noticeable and the girls seem to shy away from me. Do you think they know about me?

Should I quit my job? Or should I continue our affair until we can see fit to give up our dear families to be married. Please help me, Miss Dix.

DESPERATE

Answer: It is your conscience you should be calling on for help, not me. Any married woman who is 40 years old has a good husband and a daughter, carries on an affair with a married man and who spreads false stories about the girls who work under her in order to cover up her own scandal, is certainly in dire need of some miracle to happen to save her from the consequences of her sin and folly.

DON'T YOU realize that you are bound to pay with your very life blood for the wrongs you are so blithely committing? Don't you know that the husband you say you adore, yet whom you are betraying, will find out about your treachery and divorce you, and that your daughter will hate you for the shame you have brought upon her? Can't you see that you can't keep up the bluff of making the girls who work under you a screen for your love affair? Don't you know your power is too small to [illegible]

You are an [illegible] woman. You must have your moments when you know that all of your little house of cards that you have built will fall to pieces, and that you will have to pay to the last heartache for the wrongs you have done.

Why don't you turn around and try to retrace your steps before it is too late?

Dear Dorothy Dix: We are a young couple who have been married just a year. We live quite a distance from where my husband works, and we are having trouble because I resent his riding back and forth in cars in which girls also ride. I love my husband and I do not want him to perhaps make entanglements with other women that might break up our home.

HE SAYS he is not interested in women. He only wants to get home and that is the only way he has of doing it. Of course, I have a jealous nature and it may be that I am wrong, but I think he should humor me in this and not ride in a car that girls are in. What do you think?

UNHAPPY WIFE

Answer: I think you are going far out of your way to hunt for trouble, but that you are likely to find it if you continue to be so silly. If you don't want your husband to ride in any public vehicle in which there are girls, how do you expect him to be transported unless he grows a pair of wings. In these days, when men and women work side by side and are bound to come and go together, there is no way in which a green-eyed wife can segregate her husband from the female sex.

Dear Miss Dix: What can Mother do with my 15-year-old brother who is constantly threatening her with joining the Navy? Whenever she reproves him for keeping bad company or being lazy, he holds his threat over her head. He is the only boy, and Mother isn't in good health.

BIG SISTER

Answer: The next time the spoiled brat, for that is all he is, threatens to join the Navy, urge him to do it. He won't, but if he should it would be the greatest thing that ever happened in his life for him. He would get the discipline then that your foolish and overfond mother has not given him.

Your Baby and Mine

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

The child is given the wrong attitude toward toilet behavior when the parent calls it "naughty." If the child is incapable of staying dry or clean, because he has not yet reached a point of development at which control is predictable, then he should not be made to feel he is bad. This knowledge gives him a club over the parent. He can, just by being natural, cause her infinite distress and anger.

If she punishes him, he feels a desire for revenge and no one needs to be told what terrific advantage a child can take when he feels the parent is both angry and helpless. He can do just as he pleases and no one can stop him.

It seems better, because we know this, to keep a tight rein over emotions which are roused by the child's lack of control. Then the child does not get any idea that his conduct is bad and that he'll be a good boy if he acts differently. He only knows that we feel he has to keep on growing some more before he can act like older children or adults.

Children are eager to be like and act like us, if we do not complicate these desires. They enjoy admiration. They like to be told they are getting to be such big girls or boys that soon, very soon, they won't be wetting or soiling their clothes.

The dominated child who has no power to act as he pleases will take advantage of his knowledge that he can be victorious over the parent. He comes to exult in the description of himself as the child who "can't be trained or who won't" tell his mother or sit upon the toilet.

These tags give him distinction as a personality and he would not be deprived of them.

Parents have to expect wet and soiled clothing for the first two or three years of the child's life. They should expect, too, that as soon as the child is physically capable of control he or she will be happy to exhibit it.

The child needs to be given confidence that he can be dry and clean, eventually, and not punished or berated when he has accidents. Then he will develop no sense of revengefulness which will incite him to more and more acts of this dramatic and exciting kind.

Our leaflet No. 65, "Toilet Training," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Myrtle Myer, Eldred in care of the Edmonton Bulletin.

Welfare Study Report Planned

CALGARY, APRIL 11—At the close of the second confidential session of the Provincial Chapter IODE, in the Alberta Welfare Study Mrs. R. C. Marshall, Edmonton, provincial regent, announced that members by enthusiastic and unanimous vote decided to assume full responsibility for publication and distribution later, of a report covering findings and recommendations on public and voluntary welfare services in the province.

There will be a general public report, specific reports to the order on its own work and to certain municipalities and several voluntary agencies who have taken advantage of the staff of the study to consult and advice on their programs.

MRS. MARSHALL stated that a full and frank statement of the welfare situation had been laid before the members and that all details would be made public.

It would cover the overall welfare costs and services legislation, administrative and personnel, suggestions as to both provincial and municipal welfare services and would deal specifically with conditions revealed in the treatment of unmarried parenthood, commercialized placing of children and the aged, adoption practice, particularly in the movement of children of Alberta, and the handling of delinquents especially 'teen-ages and girls of the non-Roman Catholic faith for whom no facilities exist comparable to those provided by the Catholic charities.

New Soapless VEL Cleans Without Suds

by Frances Thompson
noted homemaking authority

Over a million dollars [illegible] invested in perfecting VEL, a [illegible] new post-war discovery in cleaning. It is not a temporary substitute for soap. And because it is not a soap its action is entirely different. Like all things new, when you use VEL you must know the right way to get the best results.

NO SUDS NEEDED

The most noticeable difference between VEL and soap is in the suds. Most women have always looked to the suds in soap for its cleaning power. VEL proves that the suds are unnecessary to the cleaning action. In fact VEL [illegible] action continues long after suds dissolve.

Next you'll notice a difference in the water. Soap combines with water to make a curd that causes [illegible]. When you use VEL, leaves the water as clear as soft water. It is the water that makes the water act soft too. As a result, you'll quickly see how much grease and grime VEL removes.

SURPRISINGLY LITTLE NEEDED

[illegible] can spoil the best cake recipe, so too much VEL may give you disappointing results. So follow the instructions on the package carefully. It's [illegible]

Edmonton Boxers Win at Red Deer

RED DEER, April 11.—Seven championships were crowned at Red Deer on Thursday night in the provincial inter-scholastic boxing championships for 1945 staged under the auspices of the Red Deer Amateur Athletic Association. Edmonton took two championships and the other five were divided among Ponoka, Mountain View, Pincher Creek, Cardston and Red Deer.

GORDON SLOAN of Cardston winner of the 112-pound title and also holder of the 112 pound provincial amateur novice championship won at Cardston this week was awarded the Red Deer AAA trophy for the best display of the evening.

A good crowd attended the successful meet held in the armoury and they were treated to a first class show of 14 bouts. There was one knockout, in the final of the 160 pound division when Doug Swail, Edmonton, put Jim Hackett, Red Deer away in the second round of a good bout, in which the Ded Deer boy put up a game scrap against the superior skill of his opponent.

Technical kayoes ended two other bouts. Billy Gow, Edmonton, won that way in the first round of a 135 pound semi final against John MacBeth, Red Deer and Gordon Sloan, Carston took the final of the 112 pound class by first round technical K.O. against Harvey Segrave, Ponoka. Most of the boys were pretty well matched. There was plenty of action and smart boxing.

THE CHAMPIONS are: 80 lbs. - Arthur Hart, Red Deer, 90 lbs. - Jack Adams, Ponoka, 112 lbs - Gordon Sloan, Cardston, 118 lbs - Harvey Louey, Pincher Creek, also winner of the provincial novice title for same weight at Cardston this week, 135 lbs. - Doug Swail, Edmonton.

The evening results were:

112 LBS FINAL—Gordon Sloan, 112 lbs Cardston, provincial novice 112 lb. champion, won by technical K.O. in first round against Harvey Segrave 112 lbs. oPnoka.

118 LBS SEMI-FINALS — Harvey Louey, 118 lbs Pincher Creek Alberta novice champion at 118 lbs. disposed Arthur Vincent 118 lbs. Edmonton. Wallace Sloan 118 lbs. Carnston, decisioned Gerrald Dahms 117 lbs. Ponoka. Final—Louey decisioned Sloan.

135 LBS SEMI-FINALS — Jim McGregor, 130 lbs. Edmonton decisioned Wally Newton, 138 lbs. Cardston. Billy Gow, 136 lbs. Edmonton won by technical K.O. in first round from John MacBeth, 132 lbs. Red Deer. The final of this division did not go on as a cut over McGregor's eye sustained at Cardston opened and his trainer did not allow him to box in the final. The title was automatically awarded to Billy Gow.

147 LBS FINAL—Harold Payne 147 lbs Mountain View decisioned Harold Gardener, 146 lbs. Ponoka.

160 LBS FINAL — Doug Swail 159 lbs Edmonton won in second round knock out from Jim Hackett 156 lbs Red Deer.

Get Less Sugar Than Last Year

BY CHESTER BLOOM

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, April 11—Despite the increased allocation of sugar to Canada this year by the United Nations food committee, individual sugar consumers in Canada are getting actually three and one-quarter pounds less of sugar every three months for home use than in the same period last year. This is admitted by local officials of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

ONE REASON is that the allocation of sugar this year for industrial purposes—to canners of fruits, jams and jellies, to bakers, candy makers, restaurants, hotels and other institutions was increased by approximately ten per cent. Another is that canned fruits containing sugar, and all syrups have been taken off the ration list. Jams, jellies and preserves, however, are still rationed.

Over the whole of last year, 1946, individual sugar consumers received 31 regular one-pound sugar coupons and ten one-pound sugar coupons for canning and preserving—a total of 41 pounds—during the year. That works out to 10¼ alloted pounds per person every three months.

SO FAR THIS YEAR, individual sugar consumers have been alloted four regular one pound sugar coupons plus three other one-pound coupons which can be used either for sugar for direct consumption or for preserving and canning a total of seven pounds of sugar per person every three months.

Officials of the WPTB however say that the allotment may be increased later in the year. That was done last year when three pounds extra were allowed to each consumer bringing their total for 1946 up from 38 to 41 pounds.

Good news, indeed, is the announcement from Ottawa that table syrup has been taken off the list of rationed foods. Now you may obtain Rogers' Golden Syrup at your store WITHOUT COUPONS.

But because Rogers' Golden Syrup is made from cane sugar, and our production is dependent upon our share of the world sugar supply, you may not always be able to find your favorite syrup on the grocer's shelves. But keep looking for it, keep asking for it; because Rogers' Golden Syrup, made from pure sugar cane, is so delicious and so good for your family, especially the children.

LOOKING FOR A BETTER HOME?
Here it is!
LOCATION: North of South Side Post Office; near school, transportation and churches.
CONSTRUCTION: Cement basement (36x50, walls 10"); clinker brick, oak and maple floors.
LAYOUT: Large entrance hall with closet, large living room with clinker brick fireplace, dining room, sun room, kitchen, bathroom and 3 bedrooms; No. 1 oak floors (maple in bedrooms); extra room and double plumbing in basement. Clinker brick garage attached to house and heated from hot water heating plant from house.
Double lot (66x132), with hedges, is really beautiful and in keeping with the property.
This is definitely one of the best constructed homes in Edmonton and is selling for a price much below its replacement value.
It is not our practise to "boost" properties just in order to "make a sale" but in this case we strongly recommend the purchase of this home.
Price $9,500 (can be financed up to $4,500).
Seen by appointment only.

Price Distortion Hits C.P.R. Net

MONTREAL, (CP) — The year 1946 provided welcome opportunities for the re-establishment by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company of services which were suspended during the war, and for further improvements in the field of transportation, W. Neal, C.P.R. president, stated in the company's annual report for 1946.

"The difficulties which the transition period presented were largely surmounted. The dominion enjoyed general prosperity and the demand for rail transportation was well sustained," Mr. Neal said.

"The distorted relationship between the price received for transportation service and the prices paid for labor and materials prevented your company from earning the reasonable returns, which might have seemed assured under these favorable business conditions," he added.

Gross Up, Net Down

"Although gross earnings in 1946 were 21 percent higher than in 1928, the previous peacetime record year, net earnings were 61 percent below the 1928 net and represented a return of only 1.6 percent on the investment in railway property, compared with five percent in that earlier peak year."

Financial statement of the company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1946 and which was issued previously in a preliminary statement follows:

Report Detailed

Net income was $25,134,731 or equal to $1.53 per share on the ordinary stock, a decrease of $6,479,431 from the 1945 total of $31,614,162 or $1.98 a share.

Gross earnings were $292,495,828 or $23,613,530 lower than the previous year's $316,109,024. Working expenses, including taxes, were $271,652,778 against $280,055,024, a decline of $8,402,246.

Net earnings dropped $15,211,284 at $20,843,050 from 1945's $36,054,334. Other income amounted to $22,779,794 versus $15,106,957 and fixed charges were $18,488,113 against $19,547,129. Ratio of working expenses to gross earnings was 92.87 percent against 88.5 percent for the year before.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, (CP) — Rye futures prices gave a strong display in early trading on the Winnipeg grain exchange Friday with advances of 7⅛ cents recorded in the July future at one time on the strength of shipper buying, light offerings and firmness at Chicago.

Recession at Chicago, however, reacted here and at the close May was up five at 2.86AN; July down ⅛ at 2.62⅛ and May down 3⅛ at 2.16⅛.

Cash prices: 1 C.W. 2.89N; oats at ceiling of 65 cents; barley at ceiling of 93 cents.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, (AP) — A heavy selling wave swept over grain pits shortly before the close Friday, wiping out practically all early gains and creating losses which extended to three cents in corn.

Only grain delivery to close higher was May wheat, which was influenced by an agriculture department report showing farm stocks of wheat on April 1 were the lowest since 1938. This delivery closed 2¼ cents higher after soaring 10 cents in early trade.

Wheat closed 1½ lower to 2¼ higher, corn was 2¼ to 3 cents lower and oats ½ to 1 cent lower.

Decision will be effected immediately after April 21 or earlier.
